WELCOME TO ISSUE 11

November 2019

JUDAH WALLACE DAVIS

Friends we made it to Issue 11!
Nov 22, 2019 I turned 50 years old and am amazed at how fast time is moving for me and us all! Can you believe we are almost at Christmas time again and soon to go into the year 2020?

Blows my mind sometimes and I can only pray that God help me and us all to redeem the time and do the work that He has called each of us to complete while we still have the opportunity.

I hope everyone of you had a blessed Thanksgiving and had an opportunity to spend time with your loved ones and enjoy some good food, fellowship and rest in Jesus Christ Name!

Many years ago I heard about a Romanian man named Dumitru Duduman who smuggled Bibles into Romania and Russia. He was arrested by the Romanian Communist Government under the dictator Nicolae Ceaușescu and was brutally tortured for His Faith in Jesus Christ before being released almost dead.

In this Issue our main article will be his vision entitled: THE MESSAGE FOR AMERICA which Dumitru received from God while living in California after he arrived in exile from Romania.

I encourage everyone to read the article and watch the accompanying YouTube Video of Dumitru Duduman and his grandson interpreter Michael Boldea sharing the FULL testimony of what God showed him concerning the USA.

The events described in the MESSAGE FOR AMERICA I believe are soon to come to pass and now is the time to be prepared spiritually and ready to endure until the end.

I want to thank my friend Michael Boldea who is Chairman of Hand of Help Ministries and the grandson of Dumitru Duduman for permission to reprint the article in this issue and encourage you all to follow his ministry at www.hand-of-help.com.

In other news, looking at our episode count we are about 50 shows shy of hitting the next Milestone which will be 7,000 episodes we have recorded and released to date.

I give Jehovah God and Jesus Christ the Glory and thanks for enabling us to make it this far. Apart from them it would not have been possible.

On to other news I want to mention that we were able to get picked up by the Spotify network and at last count I think we have 19 ways you can listen to the show. All of these links can be found on the MENU bar at our website: www.omegamanradio.com

Additionally if you have not yet subscribed to my YouTube Channel please do so and drop by sometime during our LIVE shows where you can chat with people in the chatroom and hear the Marathon LIVE as it is playing. Our YouTube Channel is: www.youtube.com/omegaman

After a long absence I also want to let you know I am back on Facebook and you can find me at: <https://www.facebook.com/shannon.omegaman> if you would like to ADD me as a friend.

We are taking a little time off to recharge the batteries and plan to be back on air soon Jehovah God willing.

I want to thank all of you for taking the time to read this magazine and encourage you to share it with a friend.

GOD BLESS YOU

SHANNON, MAMA NURITA, BABY PROPHET JEREMIAH AND BABY JUDAH.

SEPTEMBER 1984

Late one night, I could not sleep. The children were sleeping on the luggage. My wife and daughter were crying, I went outside and walked around. I didn't want them to see me cry. I walked around the building, crying and saying, "God! Why did you punish me? Why did you bring me into this country? I can't understand anybody. If I try to ask anybody anything, all I hear is, "I don't know."

I stopped in front of the apartment and sat on a large rock. Suddenly a bright light came toward me. I jumped to my feet because it looked as if a car was coming directly at me, attempting to run me down! I thought the Romanian Secret Police had tracked me to America, and now they were trying to kill me. But it wasn't a car at all. As the light approached, it surrounded me. From the light I heard the same voice that I had heard so many times in prison.

He said "Dumitru, why are you so despaired?" I said, "Why did you punish me? Why did you bring me to this country? I have nowhere to lay my head down. I can't understand anybody." He said, "Dumitru, didn't I tell you I am here with you, also? I brought you to this country because this country will burn." I said, "then why did you bring me here to burn? Why didn't you let me die in my own country? You should have let me die in jail in Romania! He said, "Dumitru, have patience so I can tell you. Get on this." I got on something next to him. I don't know what it was. I also know that I was not asleep. It was not a dream. It was not a vision. I was awake just as I am now.

He showed me all of California and said, "This is Sodom and Gomorrah! All of this, in one day it will burn! It's sin has reached the Holy One." Then he took me to Las Vegas. "This is Sodom and Gomorrah. In one day it will burn." Then he showed me the state of New York. "Do you know what this is?" he asked. I said, "No." He said "This is New York. This is Sodom and Gomorrah! In one day it will burn." Then he showed me all of Florida, "This is Florida." he said. "This is Sodom and Gomorrah! In one day it will burn."

Then he took me back home to the rock where we had begun. "IN ONE DAY IT WILL BURN! All of this I have shown you" - I said, "How will it burn?" He said, "Remember what I am telling you, because you will go on television, on the radio and in churches. You must yell with a loud voice. Do not be afraid, because I will be with you." I said, "How will I be able to go? Who knows me here in America? I don't know anybody here." He said, "Don't worry yourself. I will go before you. I will do a lot of healing in the American churches and I will open the doors for you. But do not say anything else besides what I tell you. This country will burn!"

I said, "What will you do with the church?" He said, "I want to save the church, but the churches have forsaken me." I said, "How did they forsake you?" He said, "The people praise themselves. The honor that the people are supposed to give Jesus Christ, they take upon themselves. In the churches there are divorces. There is adultery in the churches. There are homosexuals in the churches. There is abortion in the churches and all other sins that are possible.

Because of all the sin, I have left some of the churches. You must yell in a loud voice that they must put an end to their sinning. They must turn toward the Lord. The Lord never gets tired of forgiving. They must draw close to the Lord and live a clean life. If they have sinned until now, they must put an end to it, and start a new life as the Bible tells them to live." I said, "How will America burn?" America is the most powerful country in this world. Why did you bring us here to burn? Why didn't you at least let us die where ALL the Dudumans have died?"

He said, "Remember this, Dumitru. The Russian spies have discovered where the nuclear warehouses are in America. When the Americans will think that it is peace and safety - from the middle of the country, some of the people will start fighting against the government. The government will be busy with internal problems. Then from the ocean, from Cuba, Nicaragua, Mexico,..." (He told me two other countries, but I didn't remember what they were.) "...they will bomb the nuclear warehouses. When they explode, America will burn!"

"What will you do with the Church of the Lord? How will you save the ones that will turn toward you?" I asked. He said, "Tell them this: how I saved the three young ones from the furnace of fire, and how I saved Daniel in the lion's den, is the same way I will save them."

The angel of the Lord also told me, "I have blessed this country because of the Jewish people who are in this country. I have seven million Jews in this country, but they do not want to recognize the Lord. They didn't want to thank God for the blessing they received in this country. Israel doesn't want to recognize Jesus Christ. They put their faith in the Jewish people in America. But, when America burns, the Lord will raise China, Japan, and other nations to go against the Russians. They will beat the Russians and push them all the way to the gates of Paris.

Over there they will make a treaty and appoint the Russians as their leaders. They will then unite against Israel. When Israel realizes she does not have the strength of America behind her, she will be frightened. That's when she will turn to the Messiah for deliverance. That's when the Messiah will come. Then, the church will meet Jesus in the air, and he will bring them back with Him to the Mount of Olives. At that time, the battle of Armageddon will be fought."

When I heard all of this I said, "if you are truly the angel of the Lord, and everything you have told me is true, then all you have said must be written in the Bible." He said, "Tell everyone to read from Jeremiah 51:8-15, Revelation chapter 18, and Zechariah chapter 14, where Christ fights against those who possess the earth. After His victory," the angel said, "there will be one flock and one Shepherd. There will be no need for light. The Lamb of God will be the Light. There will be no sickness, no tears, and no deaths. There will only be eternal joy and God will be the ruler. There will be only one language. Only one song. And no need for a translator! ... And, Dumitru," he continued, "a word of warning. If you keep anything from the American people that you are told, I will punish you severely." "How will I know that this is for real -that it will really happen?" I asked. "As a sign that I have spoken to you, tomorrow before you wake, I will send someone to bring you a bed, and at noon I will send you a car and a bucket of honey. After which I will send someone to pay your rent." The next day someone brought Dumitru a bed, and at noon a car arrived with the bucket of honey. His rent was also paid, as God had promised him. (See chapter 10, "THROUGH THE FIRE WITHOUT BURNING.") Then the angel left.

ABOUT DUMITRU DUDUMAN

Dumitru Duduman was born to George and Escaterina Duduman on July 14, 1932 in Hintesti, Romania. His native village is situated in the northeastern part of Romania near the Russian border. Here Dumitru was brought up in the knowledge of God by his parents, but most of all from his grandfather, Costache, whom he loved deeply. He grew accustomed to religious persecution at a very young age seeing his father and older brother, Costache, put in prison for their beliefs. Although the rest of the family had not been arrested, they were ordered to hard labor in the Communist farmland projects.

Even though Dumitru had been brought up in a Christian home, by the age of fourteen he had started wandering from God. At the age of seventeen he rebelled and joined the Romanian army. His rejection of God saddened his parents greatly and for many months they prayed for him continually. Dumitru spent the first eight months of his army career in the Chitila boot camp. Even today this boot camp is well known for its harsh treatment of new recruits. After finishing boot camp, Dumitru was one of few soldiers chosen to go on to the Constanta Military School. He started in Constanta in 1951 and stayed there four and one half years. Upon his graduation, Dumitru received a diploma and was given the rank of Lieutenant in the Marines. Soon he had eighty men under his command.

It was also during this time that persecution against Christians began to escalate. Dumitru was given orders to search every ship coming into the Constanta harbor at the Black Sea. If he should find Bibles, he was to confiscate them and arrest whomever was responsible for bringing them into the country.

One morning as he and eight of his men were searching a ship, Dumitru came upon a large number of bibles. He was overjoyed at finding the Bibles knowing that this would bring yet another upgrade in his ranking.

While questioning the man who was responsible for bringing the Bibles, Dumitru had his first personal encounter with the power of God. He heard a voice telling him to help the man unload the Bibles and cause him no harm. When the voice persisted, Dumitru obeyed and helped the missionary to the fullest.

For two years Dumitru remained on the Black Sea helping missionaries that came through. After being sent to another school for six months, he was returned to his unit as a full Major. The future seemed very bright for Dumitru, until the Communist government of Romania passed a law that would change his life forever. They ordered that all soldiers in the Romanian army who are Christians or who came from Christian homes to be dismissed immediately.

At age twenty-four, angry and disappointed, Dumitru returned home seeking vengeance. He went to the church service that his father was attending with the purpose of venting his anger and frustrations. As he walked to the church service, he heard a song being sung that touched his heart so deeply that he began to weep. This was the seed that took root in his heart and made him commit himself to God not long after that experience. Shortly after this event he met Maria (Ecatarina) who would become his wife and bear his first child. A girl, whom they named Virginia, was born to them on April 18, 1957. One year later, Maria gave birth to another baby, this time a boy. They named him Costica, but he died when he was only five and a half months old.

In his time of trial Dumitru turned to God, and his love for the Lord continued to grow. He was soon baptized with the Holy Spirit, and not long after he began to preach.

As he continued to dedicate himself to God, the enemy came against him more and more. People were coming to Christ, and the devil was not pleased. After much prayer and a promise from God, Dumitru finally saw the hand of God move in a mighty way. Maria was healed and her sight was completely restored. God began to use Dumitru in the area of healing and prophecy, and many saw the power of God during his travels throughout Romania. As Dumitru continued to see God's goodness and power, he became involved in Bible smuggling. There was a great hunger for the Word of God in Romania, as well as in Russia, and Bibles were very scarce.

In 1973 Dumitru began smuggling large quantities of Bibles over the Russian border. He had established many connections with outside missionaries who would supply him with Bibles. Through many miraculous occurrences, God continually protected Dumitru. In one instance, God even blinded the eyes of the police so they would not see the car filled with Bibles that he was riding in. In all of his years of smuggling Bibles he was never caught. In 1979 based on information received from informants within the Christian church, Dumitru was arrested and brutally tortured for over five months. Every means imaginable were used, from electric shock to breaking nine of his ribs trying to obtain the names of people that helped Dumitru smuggle Bibles. With God's help he never broke under the severe persecution, and he never revealed the names of his Christian brothers. While Dumitru was in prison, God spoke to him through an angel, encouraging him not to fear for he still had much work to do. He was told that he would be released and that he would smuggle Bibles into Romania and into Russia for another five years. Just as the angel had said, after the death of the Colonel who was heading up the investigation, Dumitru was released and for another four years he faithfully did the work of God. Over a fifteen-year period, with God's help, Dumitru smuggled more than 300,000 Bibles and New Testaments into Russia alone, not taking into account the number of Bibles that he distributed throughout Romania.

On July 24, 1984 Dumitru and his entire family were expelled from Romania by the Communist officials. He had been given two options; either leave the country or die. It was difficult decision for Dumitru because Romanian was all that he had ever known. He would be going to unknown places where he neither spoke the language nor knew anyone who could help him. Once again, God spoke to Dumitru encouraging him and telling him that all would be well. He has yet another task to accomplish and God would be with him wherever he went.

After leaving Romania, the Duduman family made a brief stop in Italy where there was a failed attempt on his life by the Romanian Secret Police. Soon after, they boarded another plane, and on August 3, 1984 they were on American soil. Once in America, God gave Dumitru a message for this nation as well as for the American church. Life was difficult for the Duduman family during the first years in America but with God's guidance and direction, they persevered. They started a small ministry called Hand of Help, whose primary purpose at that time was to send food packages and financial aid to the families of Christian brethren who had been arrested for their faith. After the revolution of 1989, Dumitru was able to go back to Romania and see his family. The desire to help his fellow Christians still burned in his heart, and since 1990, through the work of Hand of Help, he has been able to do so. His purpose has always been a simple one: to be obedient to God's Word and to all that God would ask. He was a tireless advocate for righteousness and purity and he carried on the message of God even while his body grew old and began to revolt against him. Against his doctor's orders, he continued to travel throughout the world preaching the Word of God until finally in May of 1997, God called his servant home.

THROUGH THE FIRE

Without Burning

by Dumitru Duduman

For 25 years, Dumitru Duduman was a faithful pastor and Bible smuggler in his native land, Romania. In August of 1980, Dumitru was arrested, imprisoned and interrogated for five months. He was beaten almost every day and repeatedly shocked in an electric chair.

Arrest and interrogation became a continuous way of life for Dumitru. During this time of torture, he was hung by his waist and beaten on three different occasions. He suffered nine broken ribs, leaving permanent deformities on his rib cage. Finally, the authorities gave Dumitru three choices; a mental hospital, prison. . . or expulsion to the United States.

The choice was hard for Dumitru because of his loyalty to his homeland, but he felt his first loyalty was to God. In 1984, after years of persecution and torture, Dumitru and his family were exiled to the West. This is the true story of the man and the message that God gave him.

Mike Boldea was born in a small northern Romanian Village. At the age of nine, his entire family was deported from Romania for smuggling Bibles. His grandfather, Dumitru Duduman started an outreach ministry called "Hand of Help" of which Mike is now Chairman. Mike has traveled internationally with Dumitru for over 11 years acting as Dumitru's translator. They shared their testimonies, as well as an important message God gave Dumitru for the United States.

Recently Mike has translated the book entitled "Life In Christ" which Dumitru had penned prior to his death. The testimonies of those that were persecuted for their faith must live on to build up the body of Christ. Mike continues to operate in his gift as an Evangelist to exhort the body of Christ to present itself with a garment clean before our Lord. Michael has a strong Christian heritage coming from a line of 4 generations of Christians. In the village of Hinceste Romania his Great grandfather was one of the first Christians converted there and his grandfather was a pastor and his father pastors the "Messiah" church in Botosani Romania with over 800 members.

Their family worked with Richard Wurmbandt, Harlan Popoff, and brother Andrew taking bibles to the underground Church. Michael has seen the presence of God in accomplishing the work that his family was called to. In the face of great persecution and opposition thousands of bibles were given to the Christians of Romania even though it was punishable by imprisonment if caught. His grandfather Dumitru Duduman did suffer greatly being imprisoned for his faith. Under extreme torture he never recanted his faith and stands as a witness of faithfulness to this day in Romania.

Life In Christ

by Dumitru Duduman

It is one thing to preach holiness as a theory, or as one of the doctrines of the Church, and quite another thing to preach it as an experience and for the purpose of urging it upon believers. It is common for a message on holiness to be received with applause when preached as doctrine, but to be condemned when presented as God's will for our lives.

Those who hunger and thirst after righteousness and long for the "mind which was also in Christ Jesus" will embrace the crucifixion of self and receive these words of exhortation with joy and gladness. May the messages that follow in "Life In Christ", be an encouragement to you, and a comfort as you journey onward into the ways of God. Godliness puts a man in heaven before his time.

Brethren, aspire after godliness. Look to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith and never look away until you have His image stamped upon your soul.

Transformation, Transferring and Transitioning to Walk in Prophetic Prayer and Power

by: Dr. Deborah A. Vails
www.setfreeoutreachministries.org www.facebook.com/debvails

Scriptures:

Amos 3:7 Acts 1:8

Amos 3:7 – Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

Acts 1:8 – But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Amp – But you shall receive power (ability, efficiency, and might) when the Holy Ghost has come upon you, and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judea and Samaria and to the ends (the very bounds) of the earth.

There should be no place that God sends us that we should not display the power of God. In other words, if you are truly sent to do a work for God, no matter where it is, the will of God should be accomplished.

Over the last year God has been preparing His people to walk in a new dimension and anointing. Many have experienced trial, testing which has prepared your character and brought purification to those areas of struggle. God has allowed persecution to come to those who are now determined to follow hard after God. Many don't understand those whom God is transforming in order to be able to transfer His anointing and power so that the vessel can handle the transition of prophetic prayer and power.

(Note: You can't walk in the power that God has for you if your vessel has not been properly prepared. Many have tried to walk in ways that God has not designed for you to walk. God has a specific call for all of us, however, we must know what God is saying concerning our individual walk and not be so quick to pattern our lives after what others are doing or how others are walking.)

Transformation - an operation that converts by insertion, deletion or permutation into another. Change that is brought on by God that begins on the inside that enables one to walk in newness of life.

Permutation – major change in character based primarily on rearrangement of existent elements. For some of us God has had to change our very DNA the marking that lets people know who we are. Each of us are unique individuals, however, often the enemy will attempt to infiltrate our DNA in order to keep us from reaching our potential. God is changing our character so that our very DNA will look like God. The bible declares that we are new creatures, created by a unique and awesome God. God knows our makeup, but He desires to use us to our full potential. In order for this to happen He must go in and change our character.

(Note: 2010 was a year of order. It was a year when God began to prepare us to walk through this year of judgment and cleansing. There were and are those who will not make it through this season because of a lack of obedience to walk in the complete and perfect will of God. Give testimony of how God began to bring out change if the Holy Ghost allows.)

Transition – passage from one place to state, stage, or place to another. Transition means change, movement, and development from one form to another. God is changing our walk so that we will not look as we have looked. Sometimes in order to transition you must lose something in order to gain. Freedom must take place in order to transition to the new place that God has designed for you to walk in.

We must not be afraid to go from one place to the next, even if we don't know what lies ahead.

Walk – to move about in visible form, to make a headway, to advance by steps. (Merriam Webster Dictionary). Gr word is per-ee-pat-eh'-o and it means to tread all around, to walk at large as proof of ability, to walk also means to live with the ability to deport oneself. God desires for us to tread in the spirit in order to gain the ability to advance in the realm of the spirit without fear of the enemy. We as believers should be able to tread on enemy territory such as when we pray warfare prayers and not on make headway but bring defeat to the enemy's kingdom.

When we know what target to hit, where it is located, we must then be able to hit the bull's eye and take the target completely out. It is not enough to wound the enemy we must take out the enemy with our prayers.

Prophetic – to speak under the unction of the Holy Ghost for edification, exhortation, and correction. When God sends a prophetic word or gives a prophetic prayer it is because He has something that He desires to do in the earth realm. Prophetic prayer is praying straight from the heart of God.

Power – gr word dunamis and it means force, power and ability. It also means strength and might.

God gives us the power, force and ability to pray effective prayers with strength and might backed by the power of God. Words from God have the same ability that David had when he used the sling shot and one smooth stone to defeat the giant. The force behind that one stone penetrated the head of the giant and exploded like a powerful bullet explodes once it enters the body. That force came as a result of the power and anointing of God because one young spoke the word and defeated the giant before he ever raised his hand to strike him. The word went before David and the anointing back him up once he positioned himself and used the weapon God gave him.

We must not only speak about the power of the Holy Ghost we must walk in the power of the Holy Ghost as we are filled with the Holy Ghost.

It is very important that we understand what God has called us to and who He is making us into. We must not walk outside of the anointing that is placed on us. Elisha, for example, was called to take the place of Elijah, however, he didn't walk into this area until the mantle was passed to him. He stayed in his office and served God faithfully.

He received the mantle because he followed the instructions that were given him. He saw the man of God go up and stayed there to catch the mantle once it was dropped. He went one step further and took the mantle up after it had been released. He fully embraced his call and office at the appointed time. He was able to go back to the same river and split it in order to cross over to the other side so that he could carry out the work God had for him to complete.

The word of God lets us know that Elisha did twice the miracles Elijah performed and even after his death his very bones were still anointed and as the corpse touched his remains God brought life back into the body of the one that had died. The power of the anointing will raise the dead, heal the sick and deliver ones oppressed, depressed or possessed by demons.

God is equipping us to walk in Prophetic Prayer and Power. Our lives will not be the same as we position ourselves to catch the mantles that are falling. In order to remain protected, we must stay in the ark of safety by remaining under the blood.

WORD FROM THE LORD

I have called you to a higher calling in me says the Lord. I have called you to walk in my divine will so that I may complete your destiny. There are many promises in my word and I will reveal myself to you as you spend time with me, get to know for I long to visit you says the Lord.

I look for a people that I can share my heart with, speak to, and commune with so that I may let you know my heart and my will for your life.

As you surrender your all to me, I the Lord will minister to every area of your life. I will bring freedom as you submit to my will and my leading says the Lord for I am with you and I will strengthen you. I will keep you through every test you are called to endure; as you call on my name, you will see me move in your life.

Walk with me and I will bring freedom in your life. Close all doors to the, as I reveal sin be quick to repent, and I will cleanse you for I come to make you whole says the Lord. For I the Lord complete my work in you for my word is true trust me says the Lord and I will show great and mighty things that you do not know says the Lord.

WORD FROM THE LORD

Tell my people to stay under the blood. My blood carries protection, salvation, deliverance, healing and wholeness. Stay under the blood. There is power in the blood. There will be catastrophic events that will take place in the land but know that my hand will cover you. I will lead and I will guide by my spirit says the Lord.

It is imperative that my people not only hear my voice but obey my voice. I am walking in the land and I desire to show myself strong on behalf of my people. Do not take my anointing for granted. Do not take for granted that I will walk with you for I am a just God and I will not allow my people to trample my anointing but I am looking for those who will walk with me and allow me to be their all in all.

This is a season where I the Lord will prove myself to my people that I am God and that there is no other god before me. I say to my people, stay under the blood. Walk in my divine will and you will see my glory for I will prove myself in this hour says the Lord.

There will be many who will choose to walk away from me but know this, I will continue to watch over my word to perform it and I will stand in the midst of those who will continue to walk with me. As I did it for my people Israel so I will do it for you. For the time will come when they will say peace and safety but there will be no peace. I will allow the enemy to wreak havoc on the earth but know that in the hour of tribulation and trial I will bring my people, my chosen through to victory. Do not think that you will be able to walk in my kingdom without allowing me to purify and cleanse every part of your being. I am a just God and my word is true. I will judge says the Lord. Walk before me and stay under the blood.

My coming is soon, know that I am coming for a people without spot, blemish or wrinkle. Hear the voice of the Lord and heed my voice says the Lord, for I am God and I love you and I desire to make you complete in me. Stay under the blood says the Lord God almighty.

About Mr. Shannon Ray Davis

aka OMEGAMAN

In 2004, Shannon Davis punched out of America and spent several years living in Central and South American countries like Costa Rica, Cartagena Colombia and Panama during which time he operated a successful internet herbal supplements business.

Business was great but then came the Crash of 2008 and as the sales began to diminish Shannon began to seek God as to what to do next and God directed him to listen to the teachings of Pastor Win Worley of Hegewisch Baptist Church.

After hearing Pastor Win preach on Deliverance, Shannon felt the calling of the LORD to enlist in the Army of God and help set the captives free in Jesus Name. He prayed a prayer asking God to use what time he had left on the planet and turn him into a weapon to deal a death blow to the forces of darkness and give the devil two black eyes and God answered.

It was a short time later that God told him to pack his bags and return to America and put it into his heart to start an internet radio network that would focus on Full Gospel Mark 16 Ministry with an emphasis on training people in spiritual warfare and deliverance ministry.

On June 22, 2010 around midnight, Omega Man Radio™ launched and nine years later has produced over 6 780 shows with another new 75 LIVE shows a month being added. Omega Man Radio™ is a Full Gospel Digital Radio Show where speakers preach the Good News of Jesus Christ that He came to save those who will call on His name and repent of their sins and that Jesus wants us to be delivered of demons and set free.

Omega Man Radio™ is well known for opening telephone lines and taking calls from around the world and taking people thru deliverance – the casting out of devils in Jesus Christ Name. Our goal is to see souls saved and delivered and that people will tune in and be equipped to do exploits in these Last Days and endure until the end when Jesus returns at the Last Trumpet.

Shannon is married to wife Nurita and they have a 2 year old son named Jeremiah Ray Davis who they have dubbed “Baby Warrior Prophet” and recently added a new addition to the family with the birth of a new baby named Judah Wallace Davis born in May 2019. Shannon also has a daughter Vanessa, son Heston and grandson Trenton.

WATCH OVER YOUR HEART

by: Geri McGhee
www.gerimcghee.com

Many people are distressed and perplexed by the influx of trash and perversion that continually fills their minds, bringing defeat and failure to their lives. Some relish the thoughts, while the godly are tormented, never realizing just how they got there. Even though the Bible explicitly says in Psalms 101:3...

"I will set no worthless thing before my eyes; I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not fasten its grip on me,"

...it is no wonder why there is no victory or holiness in the lives of believers. They continue to violate (sear) their conscious and defile their lives by listening to ungodly music, viewing perverted and polluted movies and television (even news/radio talk shows... etc.), subjecting themselves to ungodly influences, all resulting in seeds of fear, terror, hysteria, torment, adultery, bitterness, lust, greed, sexual perversion, mockery, depression, despair, hopelessness, murder, torment, anger, rage, rebellion, spirit of antichrist, witchcraft, sorcery, strife, violence, profanity, blasphemy, defeat, failure, planted down in the spiritual garden of the heart. You may say, "Not me, I only watch G-rated." It is sad to say that most everything out there is laced with the occult, witchcraft, blasphemy and doctrines of demons, unfit for a believer who wants to live an "overcoming" holy life.

Have you, like me, watched a movie and seen an adulterous affair, only to find yourself coming into agreement with the sin of the adulterer? You compromise the Word of God and before you know it, you are listening to people blaspheme the name of Jesus and taking His name in vain? Over the years, I have had many people come to me for prayer because they were being traumatized by terrorizing dreams-only to find out the source was from watching horror movies. We have all heard, "Garbage in, garbage out." It is a true statement!

I was delivered in 1978 from a movie and TV addiction. Before God delivered me, I had a terrible time staying out of strife. The Lord revealed to me that seeds of strife had been planted in my heart through watching Clint Eastwood and Charles Bronson movies. The enemy told me that this was all "too radical;" but I knew it was true. I was delivered after reading Pastor David Wilkerson's book in which he stated God had told him, "Choose the television or His anointing." Obviously, Pastor Wilkerson chose God's anointing--so much so, he was not invited to many churches in America!

From 1992 to the present, I make it a nightly practice to play the Word of God over me as I sleep to sow the good seed of God's Word into my heart. You may say, how can a person possibly get anything out of that since they are asleep? Well, the Song of Solomon 5:2 answers that question:

"I was asleep but my heart is awake."

In I Corinthians 3:9, it says we are a building, a house and a field. In Mark 4:3-12, Matthew 13:4-8 and Luke 8:5-8, in the parable of the sower, it says the seed sown in the soil is the Word of God. Here in these verses, every human is likened to a type of soil. The different types of soil are: a type of person that totally rejects the seed of the Word of God; a type of person who receives the seed of the Word of God and allows the worries and cares of the world and desire for riches to choke out the Word of God; a type of person that receives the seed of God's Word with joy, but when he learns he must crucify his flesh to walk with God, the Word of God persecutes him and he falls away from the faith; and finally, a type of person that receives the Word of God and produces fruit 30, 60 and 100 fold. These parables indicate that if we do not take care how and what we listen to, what we think we have will be taken away. If you can understand the principles Jesus set down in these parables, Mark 4:13 says, you can understand every parable in the Word of God.

The seed planted can be discerned by the kind of fruit it produces. James 3:14-18 says, "But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth. This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic. For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without hypocrisy. And the seed whose fruit is righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace."

Isaiah 5:1-7 also says we are the vineyard of the Lord of Host. This being the case, we are responsible for what we allow to be planted in the spiritual gardens of our heart. The Bible tells us to

"Watch over our hearts with all diligence for from the heart flow the issues of life."

Prov. 4:23

Matthew 12:33-37 and 15:19:20 says good or evil words or thoughts come forth from what has been planted in the heart. Every good or evil action begins with a thought. The Bible warns us to not plant two kinds of seed in our vineyard because the bad seed will defile the good.

Deut. 22:9 says,

"You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, or all the produce of the seed which you have sown and the increase of the vineyard will become defiled (to make foul, dirty, or unclean; pollute; taint; debase; to violate the chastity of; make impure for ceremonial use; desecrate; to sully).

Anyone who has ever had a garden will tell you that you do not have to take care of the weeds--they do just fine! It will not be long before they overtake the good plants. Never will you find the good plants overtaking the weeds.

In I Corinthians 10:4-6, we are commanded by God to take our thoughts captive, but it is impossible to do so without first dealing with the evil seeds that have been planted down in our heart, not only through things we have seen and listened to, but also through sin we have committed and sins that have been committed against us (that are hidden and not yet resolved through asking God's forgiveness and forgiving others). What fruit is actually being produced? Without holiness, no one will see God (Hebrews 12:10). Don't be fooled in believing that you can live in divine health and live a life of victory and continue to corrupt and defile the good seed of God's Word by planting the devil's evil seeds down in your heart.

Failure to guard your heart and tend your vineyard will cause your end to be like the sluggard in Proverb 24:30-34,

"I passed by the field of the sluggard and by the vineyard of the man lacking sense, and behold, it was completely overgrown with thistles; its surface was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down. When I saw, I reflected upon it; I looked, and received instruction. A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest," Then your poverty will come as a robber and your want like an armed man."

Abiding Life Ministries' vision is to be one of God's instruments to heal, deliver, train, and disciple leaders through teaching principles of the "overcoming life". It is our prayer that these disciples are equipped to carry out Christ's ministry here on earth for the building up of the Body. God created each individual with a "divine purpose." The goal of Abiding Life Ministries is to encourage other believers in their spiritual walk and help each person fulfill their God given destiny.

Geri McGhee has been in the deliverance ministry since 1982 and is the President of Abiding Life Ministries. She is a Member of the Advisory Board for the International Spiritual Warfare Team Committee. She is a featured speaker for the retreats held year round at Lake Hamilton Bible Camp in Hot Springs, AR. Since 1990, Geri has been teaching "Overcoming Life's Obstacles -- In the Word Deliverance and Healing Seminars," throughout the United States. Through these seminars, she has seen God work mighty signs and wonders. Individuals who attend her meetings are experiencing God's healing touch spiritually, physically, mentally, and emotionally in addition to learning principles of the "overcoming life." The knowledge and spiritual insight God has given Geri sets many free to walk in victory. She teaches and ministers with wisdom and is well grounded in Scripture. Concise, clear teaching coupled with love, warmth, humor, and compassion allows Geri to communicate with her congregation an informative and life changing message.

VIOLENT DEMONS BATTLED, JESUS CONQUERED AND APPEARED!

by: Jay Bartlett

Jay is Pastor of the Jesus Church in Vancouver, British Columbia &
Pasadena, California

www.jaybartlettmissions.com

God is clearly blessing our work, at the Jesus Church, in Vancouver, British Columbia and in Pasadena, California, as many precious souls are being transformed by the love and power of Jesus. On a recent Saturday evening, before a packed hall, in the Vancouver area, I proclaimed the gospel and allowed the ministry team to minister to the many souls needing spiritual release and healing. God performed wondrous works in our midst. Then early Sunday morning I departed British Columbia for California.

Here in Southern California, at the Jesus Church, God is performing some extraordinary miracles, as EVERY week, we are seeing souls being supernaturally caught up into the Third Heaven and encountering the most glorious wonders—such as meeting the Heavenly Father and His Son, the Lord Jesus! Recently, here in Pasadena, California, at our weekly services, more disciples freed from evil spirits, healed and powerfully impacted by the love of God.

One lady, I ministered to, was this young lady (pictured with me), who had an incredible encounter with God. As I began to pray for her, many demons rose up from within her—they were violent and aggressive, as they fiercely approached me and pushed me backwards. Take a glance at her picture above, this woman, is a petite lady, however, the demonic spirits residing within her were strong. I was surprised actually. The evil spirits didn't want to leave and they made it very clear of their intentions.

"We are not leaving her," the demons declared to me, as they battled me in front of the hall, "We are staying here, as we have been here a long time!"

We discovered as the spiritual war ensued that they had been there for more than 10 generations --hundreds of years, centuries of demonic ancestral bondages. Thank God for the work of the Jesus Church, as we offer opportunities EVERY week, for those needing spiritual liberation, to find deliverance, in the mighty name of Jesus!

"Her ancestors participated in idolatrous practices and worshipped other gods and goddesses," the spirits informed me, "We bring her physical pains and afflictions."

Throughout this spiritual battle with spirits named Lucifer, death, witchcraft and many others, God's holy angels greatly assisted and helped us as we warred against these forces of darkness. The holy angels struck the demons with their spears and swords—greatly weakening them. Moreover, the usage of the cross, holy oil and holy communion destroyed their works! All of the demons were commanded out in the name of Jesus Christ (along with some inner witches that were attempting to destroy this woman with their spells and curses).

Furthermore, we were able to reach her broken heart with the healing power of the Holy Spirit. As we prayed for her, she was suddenly lifted off the earth and into the Third Heaven.

Almost instantly, Jesus appeared! He gave her a warm and comforting hug. Then, Jesus allowed her to ride on His back and took her to the DOOR that led into the Throne Room of the Heavenly Father. She opened the DOOR and immediately the Father was present in His unfailing, unfathomable love. The Father waved to her and embraced her!

Can it get any better than this? Watch for yourself (check out our YouTube Channel to view her testimony).

By the way, she was not only set free from evil spirits but also was physically healed of her many pains. She was totally shocked and surprised --all of her physical pains and afflictions vanished! She was so happy afterwards. Jesus Christ HEALED HER! All praise to God!

FROM LOCKDOWN TO FREEDOM

By Ron Zaucha

Ron Zaucha was a California street smart, tough-guy turned drug dealer. He befriended and dealt to many classic rock stars, actors and burnouts in the 1970s and '80s. He lived a fast paced life, filled with flashy cars, a pocket full of cash, and beautiful women at his side. Whatever Ron wanted, Ron got. However, there was a price to pay for it all.

At times Zaucha had to be a tough guy when it came to collecting money. At times he alternately befriended and shook down some of the biggest icons of the day. For years his best friends were Smith & Wesson, and they helped him get the job done. Until one day, everything came to a crashing halt and took him down into to a pit he barely made it out of.

His stories will make you laugh, cry and amaze you how he survived. This is the story of one man's incredible rise, fall and redemption.

GEORGIA GUIDESTONES UNLEASHED

Exposing the True Darkness of the Guidestones

♦ Part Two ♦

by: Bryan W Melvin

The Bible is clear when it says that Christians are to expose what is done in darkness as it is written:

“Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them... But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light.”

Eph 5:11,13, ESV.

In doing so, we can wage a more effective spiritual war (Eph 6:10-18) through focused prayers and intercession. This requires Christian researchers, ministers, and lay people to investigate darkness, not to participate with such diabolical evil, but with purpose to expose it.

THIS APPLIES TO NUMEROLOGY

To unpack the messages within the Guidestones involves the dreaded word numerology, which assigns word definitions to numbers and used in a variety of ways. Numerology is like a foreign language. Like any dictionary definition, numbers have various nuances in their meanings. To discover the correct connotation there must be a context and subject in order to correctly interpret them.

There are different types of numerology. The occult world uses Chaldean, Kabala, Pythagorean, and Eastern systems¹⁶ that are used in fortunetelling, soothsaying, and secret messages. Word meanings are derived from a subject such as a person's name or birthdate, or words. Hidden messages are interpreted by the context of such things as pagan worship festivals, astral alignments which provide the subject needed for interpretation, as well as the numbers associated with pagan (false) gods.

All interpretations are subjective and prone to bias and manipulation; therefore, note this as a disclaimer. In the occult world, such bias includes the need to seduce and/or addict people to seek greater knowledge, to foretell one's future and to find out what the stars, planets, or gods, have to say. God forbids practicing this sort of thing, not exposing it.

The Bible has its own numerological system¹⁷ based on Hebrew letters¹⁸ with their corresponding number along with its ancient pictograph form. The word definitions and usage match Hebrew grammar and syntax found in the Bible in both Old and New Testaments. The meanings of numbers are derived from the Bible and the themes they are found in scripture. They cannot be used for fortunetelling as the occult does. Don't even try. You've been warned.

The Georgia Guidestones uses Chaldean numerology¹⁶ found in the sum totals used in its height, weight, and number of stones. How do I know they used the Chaldean system? Well, the short answer is, all roads lead to Babylon.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO BABYLON

On top of the Georgia Guidestones is its capstone, with four ancient dead languages written on it. These languages consist of Babylonian cuneiform text which faces north, classic Greek which faces east, Sanskrit which faces south, and ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs which face west¹. Each language translates: Let These be Guidestones to an Age of Reason.

All four of these ancient languages share the same ancient gods, albeit in different names and slight variations. All include the worship of a sun deity who will rise again to rule the world as mentioned in part one of this article. The astral alignments point to sun worship. So does the dedication date and the obvious occultic nature of the monument and connection to Masonry.

To make it as simple and short as possible, sun worship is traced back to the land of ancient Babylon when Utu/Shamash, aka Apollo, rises from the abyss to rule the world just like Hargraves, Jennings mentions ... *"to raise out the black Abyss a god..."*¹⁵ of the old religions²⁴.

Since Babylonian cuneiform is the oldest of these languages and all ancient pagan religions can be traced back to ancient Mesopotamia, it stands to reason that Chaldean numerology would be of some importance due to the nature of the Guidestones. That is, they have some sort of occultic energy portal to channel a message into the world by which people would unknowingly comply. Therefore, hypothetically, Chaldean numerology would reveal such a message.

Another clue to consider, if Chaldean numerology is the main system used to decipher the intents of the occultist, it would be because it is the oldest script on the capstones, it faces north which indicates older gods of Mesopotamia (like Enlil) is in alignment with the others, and related to the sun deity Shamash rising again on the vernal equinox¹⁹ alluded to in the occult festivals like Ostara.

Add to this what the Bible says in Isaiah 14:4,13 where the Lord taunts the King of Babylon for saying in his heart, "I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God, And I will sit on the mount of assembly in the recesses of the north," Isaiah 14:13, NASB). Note 2nd Thessalonians 2:4, too.

Since Babylon/Chaldean is the oldest of the languages and spreads the same deities into world-wide pagan religions, I have hypothesized that Chaldean numerology might contain some sort of message that high level occultists would use to release some sort of energy to motivate ideas to guide certain people to push forward to an age of reason whose tenants are written in ten guidelines on the stones.

LET'S TEST THE HYPOTHESES

Before we begin, let me share briefly how Chaldean Numerology works. Chaldean Numerology uses a simple math form of reduction. This involves reducing numbers to their lowest form. This is accomplished by simple formulas. For example, the number 25 is reduce this way; $2+5=7$ and the sum 7 is the number used.

A series of numbers, called root numbers, are added together such as 25, 15, 28, 3 (root) like this: $25 + 15 = 40$ and $40 + 28 = 68$ and $68 + 3 = 71$. Next the total sum, 71 is reduced like this: $7+1=8$. This, then, is how you find the sums reduced as 25, 40, 68, 71, 8.

Both the root and reduced numbers have definitions which are further refined by the context and subject with which they are associated. This has been reviewed in part one and even in the words of those who had the Guidestones built. Clear as mud, right?

Let's Look at the Number of the Stones Used in the Moment to Whet your Appetite

There are six stones used in the monument. One is a capstone in rectangle shape that rest on top of one central pillar [Seth Pillar shape (20)], and four support stones of a different size. So, you have two differing stones $1+1=2$ and add the sum 2 to the 4 other pillars of same shape you get the total of 6.

Here the Chaldean numbers used are 1,1, 6 which is the 'root' and 1,2,6 which is the 'reduced.' These numbers have meanings in which context, subject, and those who had the monument built are used to translate correctly.

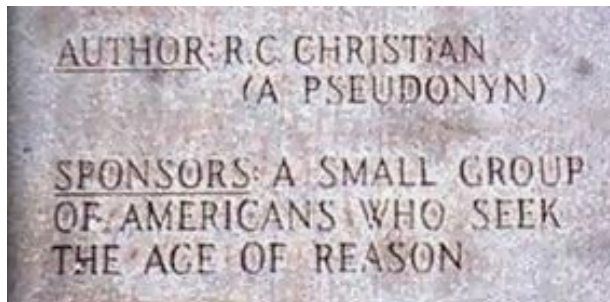

LET'S LOOK

For ease and scope of this article let's get to the point. I will list only the sums and the translation without going through the entire nuances of meaning for each number and explaining how this is done in lengthy detail as that would take way too long and bore the reader to death in the process.

However, to be brief, to quickly summarize the Chaldean Number meanings of:

1. Means: a dominate Leader or leaders endowed with the male principle of dominance, aggressive, individualistic, creative, original thinker(s), independent (as in not swayed by other's opinions) to carry out a divine purpose
2. A pair prepared and inspired guided by the divine feminine principle of receptivity that forms partnerships thru diplomacy and co-operation btw entities which re[define] choice between what is good and evil, true and false, and positive and negative – by being adaptable, tactful, understanding, gentle, cautious.
3. The symbol of building laws, systems and order by constructing dependable collations (many are needed to work together) to endure to achieve a goal of stability and safety in due time or within four seasons on earth through practicality, self-discipline, firmness for some sort of divine overcoming.
4. WHEN CALLED TO PRAY, MAKE A WAY

by: Pastor Gary Stafford

Well, it was time to get ready for our yearly summer vacation trip to the shore of Cape Cod. Being in business on straight commission, required that many details be completed accurately if I wanted to come home to income for our bills. I was dealing with these details, when I got a call from a friend.

Would I drop everything and go visit his wife in a hospital in another town, who was scheduled for surgery? I told my friend Horace that I was leaving for vacation the next day and had countless things to do before I left. I told him "Horace, I just don't have the time", but he pleaded with me to make the time to go. I was upset with his persistence, but I relented and said I would go.

When at the hospital I realized I came empty handed. So, after stopping in the gift shop, I went to her room. I said hello to Grace and told her that I couldn't stay long as we were heading out to vacation. Horace had called and asked me to pray for her. She acknowledged and knew I would be coming to pray.

Just as I was about to pray, a woman from her church stopped by, and, as most women do, they went into many things about their lives and their families. Seeing they were deep in conversation, I tried to excuse myself and say goodbye.

Suddenly, Grace said, "oh no!" You don't leave until you pray for me! Sudden silence. It was deafening. I sheepishly said alright and, placing my hand on her forehead, prayed that Grace would heal in less than half the time. Her friend prayed in agreement. We are told in Matthew 18:19 "Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them, by My Father who is in heaven." I felt nothing. I was running late so I said goodbye to Grace and her friend, left the hospital, got home and packed the car for vacation.

It was a great vacation, and two weeks later, we headed home. For the kids, it was back to school, and for me it was back to work. Our phone message tape was full. I listened to the first call, and it was from Grace. I listened and wept. God had answered our prayer and what Grace had to share was unbelievable. The phone message continued: "I (Grace) had the surgery and when the surgeon returned the next day, he was amazed at the incision, as he lifted up my hospital gown. He was very pleased with himself and left."

"The next day, my surgeon brought two of his associates in with him and said, 'I'd like you to look at the surgery that I've done.' The other two surgeons were amazed at the surgery he had done and said, 'astounding, excellent job, etc.' and they all left my room."

"The nurse, overhearing the conversation, asked me if she could look at the incision the surgeons had just seen. I agreed, and she looked confused. I asked her what was the problem? She replied, 'no, the new incision.' I replied, 'that is the new incision.' The nurse replied, 'unbelievable. It's like you are healing in less than half the time.'

The tape message continued... "Now, I know you are on vacation, Gary, so I know you won't get this message until you return, but I wanted you to know how important your decision was to drop everything and come to my side to pray! Well, I was released from the hospital early, as I was totally healed. I went home, waited for my follow-up visit with the surgeon the following week. I was released to return to work weeks ahead of schedule. Again, I remembered what you and my friend had agreed upon in prayer, 'to be healed in less than half the time.' I just wanted you to be blessed for listening to God and praying and seeing His results."

What a revelation!! "When called to pray, make a way." I almost missed my blessing. As I look back, it was just an ordinary prayer, but God promises a supernatural response. You see, He hears you and me. He's waiting for your prayer request, as it says in 1 John 5:14-15

"And this is the confidence which we have before Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the request which we have asked from Him."

As it says in 2nd Corinthians :16b "I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their God, and they shall be my people."

That's the God we serve and we are His people who receive His Grace, His Mercy, and His Love. So, when you are called to pray, make a way.

DEALING WITH MULTIPLE-PERSONALITY DISORDERS

by: Dale M. Sides
www.lmci.org

INTRODUCTION

During a deliverance session of casting out demons in an Exercising Spiritual Authority class recently, I told the students that the points I was teaching would cover 95% of the situations where demons had access to someone. In my mind I knew that dealing with multiple-personality disorders would take some special handling that I was not going to publicly teach. This was basically the 5% that I was referring to, and that has prompted me to write this information in order to supplement the materials that I usually teach in the class.

Therefore, this exposé on the subject is directed toward individuals that have some background knowledge on the subject of demonology. It is however simple and straight forward enough for even a novice to understand, but I would suggest in practically applying this to partake of some basic instruction on demonology—either in an Exercising Spiritual Authority class or from some other reliable source.

In the class where I made this statement, as you might expect, the unpredictable occurred, and a situation arose of this nature. Although these disorders are not common enough to publicly teach in every class, enough of these exist to warrant instruction. Therefore I submit this information to further enhance your understanding and ministering capabilities. I will give you some background on how multiple personalities develop, some illustrations of these, and how I have personally dealt with them. The purpose of all of this is that the people are reconciled within themselves and ultimately to the Lord.

If you have never heard of this scenario before, it may seem a little strange at first. If you are unfamiliar with this, additional understanding will help if you are ever faced with this. I was first introduced to this in ministering to people that absolutely swore that multiple-personality disorders were absolutely not demonic. Having some background in the spirit realm, I knew that it was related to the presence of evil spirits, but I could also see that there was something else going on that I had not yet put my finger on.

While in Washington DC last year, a lady asked me if these disorders were soulish or spiritual. My response to her was, “Both. If you deal with only one, the deliverance will not be complete since you may cast an evil spirit out, but if the “portal” through which it has access is not closed, the demon will only come back later.” She was elated to hear this since that is what she had been taught at a ministerial training course, “Healing through Deliverance” from El-lel Ministries in Toronto, Canada.¹

UNDERSTANDING MULTIPLE-PERSONALITY DISORDERS

A background understanding of demonology, spirit, soul, and body, and some biochemistry will add a deeper perspective on this. This type of spiritual malady is typically passed along to psychiatrists, and actually many seminaries teach ministers to not deal with these. Hopefully this study will help you if you are called upon to deal with a related situation, since the Word of God tells us that we are able ministers by the power of the Holy Spirit. So, we are equipped spiritually to handle these as you are led by the Holy Spirit. With this background information you may not need to defer this to others, especially to psychiatrists that have no knowledge of the spirit realm. If you do need some additional assistance, then perhaps this will give you valuable understanding to better communicate the needs of the person.

A multiple-personality disorder, or MPD, is a form of schizophrenia. The word “schizophrenia” is derived from the Latin root schizo-split and phrenia-mind. By strict definition, this would be a divided soul. Do not confuse this with being double-minded, which is a case of the same mind going in two directions. Schizophrenia is not simply a distraction or a temptation, but is an actual partitioning of the mind or soul. This is not someone being strongly tempted or even seduced by an evil spirit to go a different way, but is when the person actually changes personalities and often does not even remember what transpires when the other personality is active. The schizophrenic would be a soul or mind that is actually divided, partitioned, or fragmented into different parts. This would indicate that the same spirit of man would have different personalities. Schizophrenia indicates two personalities, like Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, but MPD indicates multiples, or possibly more than two personalities. This is also becoming known as an Associative Disorder within psychiatric medicine.

Obviously this is not normal, and therefore is a spiritual matter. There is an evil spirit involved in this "soul-split," but the problem in ministering to this is not just in casting out the spirit, but also in determining what allowed the initial entry to the spirit. As in most all cases of demon occupation, the reason why the demon has access and is in the person is because a "legal" portal of entry gave him access initially. In most situations this is sin, but in this case, as we will see, it is usually extreme trauma. The rule in demonology and casting out demons is this: when evil spirits are removed, the cause of occupation must be known and the entry portal must be closed to keep them out.

“When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. ‘Then he says, ‘I will return to my house from which I came.’ And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order.

~Matthew 12:43-44

Shutting the portal of access is the focal point in all deliverances and in the case of an MPD this is especially true. This would be similar to eliminating alcohol from an alcoholic for deliverance to be complete. This is vital and often when not dealt with properly makes for a worse situation afterwards. (This is often the case when spiritually uninstructed people, even psychiatrists, deal with these.)

“Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first.”

~Matthew 12:45a

The portal of entry for a MPD, or soul-split, is extreme trauma. The trauma is so severe that the person, as a mechanism of mental self-preservation and trying to survive a desperate situation, develops an unusual and specific case of denial. As opposed to completely denying that the situation happened, a fragment of the soul is compartmentalized to deal with the pain. The separate personality develops out of this compartment. In other words, instead of totally denying the incident, the individual creates a separate personality to deal with it instead of personally handling it. The compartment of the soul is divided from the rest of the soul and hence is fragmented.

The typical scenario where this fragmentation arises is at a point of extreme trauma. It could be a frightening experience such as a near death encounter, or witnessing a murder, or being raped, or sexually abused, or a severe injury. It could even be when someone is deeply rejected or humiliated, etc. At the time this happens, because the trauma is almost unbearable, the individual experiences this most extreme form of denial and thereby the fragmentation of the soul causes the ensuing dilemma of multiple personalities.

On the spiritual side however, at the same time of the trauma an evil spirit enters the person because certain biological conditions and mental instability allows the spirit access. Therefore, the initial access of the evil spirit in a MPD and where the fragmentation of the soul occurred is the same place. This is also thereby where the other personality originates.

Psychologically, when the trauma is so intense, the body will autonomically secrete adrenaline. Adrenaline, or epinephrine, is a super-concentrate of sugar that produces extraordinary strength in the body in times of stress and actually prevents demons from gaining access to neural pathways at that time. However, when denial occurs, this is an operation from the will and thereby creates a condition whereby an evil spirit may gain access into the body.

(Repetitive secretions of adrenaline are a major factor in demons gaining control in people in many situations, not just in MPD. Often individuals become "adrenaline junkies" and seek situations that cause this natural secretion, and thereby open the portal for demonic control. The demon then is actually the one that receives the satisfaction and convinces the person that whatever the activity is that creates the situation is "fun." Perhaps one of the more recently accepted places where this adrenaline surge is prompted is in video games or "virtual reality.")

The personality disorder will emerge then at times of stress, especially in a related event concerning the initial trauma. An adrenaline surge will occur (body) and the portal of the initial, un-reconciled offense (in the soul) will allow the evil spirit to take control (spirit). It may appear that the problem is in the body and the soul, but actually the evil spirit is the one that re-opens the alternate personality. The problem is not the adrenaline, but the un-reconciled trauma that gives the demon access. The only remedy is to treat the soul, not the body.

Medications given to treat mental disorders are substances that either have high ionizing properties or are depressants that slow body metabolism down. The ionizing substances build artificial neural pathways around the actual location in the brain where the memory of the initial trauma occurs. The depressants keep the body in a slower metabolism where the individual is less likely to secrete adrenaline.

Obviously the treatment is not to prevent adrenalin from being secreted, which is a natural process, but to treat the initial trauma. When dealing with this, often, but not always, the person will default into the alternate personality and actually begin conversing with you from inside the fragmentation. This is not hypnotism or psychological manipulation, but allowing the personality to emerge so that the trauma can be dealt with and the portal whereby the evil spirit enters can be closed. A novice may unknowingly think that this is an evil spirit manifesting itself, but is the other side of the partitioned soul. The partitioned soul is injured and will be seeking help. If an evil spirit emerges and communicates during this time, it will be to prevent healing.

Often the personality will be the same age as the person was when the trauma occurred. It probably will have the similar traits that the scenario generated. For example, if the trauma was terrifying then the personality will be extremely fearful, or if the trauma was sexual, then a sexual imbalance will be manifested. If the situation dealt with an injury, surgery, or a related physical accident, then continual infirmity may be manifested in the body. The solution is to eliminate the fear or anxiety that the initial incident caused. This should be done by ministry of the Holy Spirit and the Word of God.

ILLUSTRATIONS

I will give you a couple of examples to show how these fragmentations occurred and how they interrelate with the evil spirit that was demonizing the person. In these, I will also show how the trauma was ministered to and then the evil spirit cast out, thus making the deliverance complete. The specific way this is accomplished is obviously in being led by the Holy Spirit. These examples are given to show patterns, but not a specific method of deliverance. These illustrations are true accounts but enough variation is given in each one to prevent divulging privacy.

ILLUSTRATION #1.

A middle aged woman, just at the hint of life threatening situation such as a car pulling out in front of her, would break down into terror and begin shaking uncontrollably. In a ministering situation, a word of knowledge was given that at the age of 12, she watched a horror film and was terrorized from that point on. At the time of the terror, she fragmented in her soul and an evil spirit entered at the same time. At times of threatening fear, the spirit would take control of her. In ministering to her, a young girl's personality was observed. The trauma of fear was ministered to the young girl by leading her to the Lord and thereby the portal of entry of the demon was closed. The evil spirit was then cast out and the middle aged woman was taught about applying the blood of Jesus in the presence of fear and how to quote scriptures to stop the onslaught of a returning demon.

ILLUSTRATION #2.

An older woman at the suggestion of a relationship with a man would break down into uncontrollable anxiety. Upon ministering to her, a small child's personality emerged. As the child was questioned, it was discovered that her dad had unduly punished her to the point of suffocating her. The demon would seize her at the time when she became closely associated with a man. The personality of the small child was led to forgive her dad and to trust the Lord for His protection. The spirit of fear was then cast out and the child was told, "It's okay to grow up now. The personalities were merged back into reconciliation and the older woman was taught about how to handle anxiety and the threat of dealing with men. She was delivered from the anxiety and released to having meaningful relationships with men.

ILLUSTRATION #3.

A man would unpredictably say and do sexually perverted things when in life's normal activities.

Upon ministering to the man, it was discovered that he was made to have sexual relations with his uncle as a small boy. The pain was so great that the fragmentation occurred and when saying or doing sexually perverted things, he would not remember doing them. In a ministering situation, the initial offense of the uncle was discovered, the personality of the young boy forgiven of the shame and led to the Lord to forgive the uncle. The spirit was cast out and the "door" to sexual perversion was closed.

ILLUSTRATION #4.

An older woman would actually fragment into a different person and become intensely hateful toward anyone around her. This happened at certain times of threatening situations when anyone of a "superior" authority would be working with her. Upon ministering to her, a young girl's personality emerged and when questioned, it was discovered that her fragmentation occurred when her brother raped her. The young girl was led to forgive him and the spirit of hatred was cast out. (There were other personalities present with her that had to be dealt with also.) The older woman was counseled to apply the blood of Jesus to thoughts of hatred and she was given scriptures to memorize to strengthen her soul against offense in this area.

PRACTICAL KEYS TO MINISTERING TO MPD

In dealing with these disorders, it is good to know that if there is one fragmentation, it is quite possible that more than one will exist. This is because the individual is prone to this special kind of denial and would respond the same way as before in another potentially traumatic situation. Also, evil spirits are gregarious and like the company of others. They may open the door for others to come in to invade the mind and body at other traumatic times in the person's life. Watch for more than one.

These illustrations show patterns of deliverance. Specifically, when the trauma is identified, the portal whereby the spirit entered is revealed. Then by ministering to the situation and to the specific personality, i.e. quelling the fear by trusting in the Lord, or forgiving the person that performed the rape, or letting God deal with the person if forgiveness is in order, the door whereby the evil spirit is demonizing the person can be closed. Once the door is closed, then cast the spirit out. (If the spirit is cast out before the door is closed, then if the door is not closed immediately, then the spirit will return and usually with more wicked spirits with him.)

One of the major keys in generating wholeness is to merge the fragmented personality back into wholeness with the real person. This can be done by dealing directly with the personality and giving the spiritual solution to the fragmented personality. This may even mean leading the personality to salvation and actually telling it that it is okay for it to go grow up now or simply that it is not needed anymore and that it can go away. When you are talking to the fragmented personality, you are not talking to the evil spirit unless the gift of discerning of spirits reveals this to you.

Once the fragmentation is removed by dealing with the personality and merging it back within the real person, then the evil spirit MUST be cast out, and since the portal whereby it has had access is now closed, it cannot come back. Accompanying instruction must be given to help build strength in the soul where the fragmentation and weakness has been. Giving specific scriptures to memorize and use during difficult times will be more helpful.

Be very cautious about advising anyone about medication. If you do, you are liable. The medical professionals operate through diagnosis; spiritual counsel is given by Epignosis.² If the person is on medication and asks you what to do, you may want to direct them back to their doctor to ask about "tapering off" the medication. Their success involves spirit, soul, and body.

It is very important to apply the blood of Jesus for the forgiveness of sins. Even though the person may seem victimized by the event, he or she nonetheless is accountable for their own life of denial. If they apply the blood of Jesus to forgive the sin and close the access of the evil spirit into their life, remember to instruct them to forgive the person committing the offense, if applicable, and also to forgive themselves. The person must be counseled and told how to handle problems that reoccur. They should verbally apply the blood of Jesus if the spirit tries to re-enter and should emphatically re-state their deliverance and the legal grounds of their wholeness.

This article has been written and directed toward someone having knowledge of the evil spirit realm and some experience in dealing with casting out demons. This is not meant to be exhaustive on the subject but more of an overview of this particular problem. Obviously the only way that this can be adequately dealt with is through revelation by which certain details are revealed and casting out demons by the working of miracles.

Obviously, the person that had the fragmented personality and in whom the evil spirit was may need oversight, continual care, and counseling as the Holy Spirit directs. Love, understanding, and acceptance is necessary. The input of the specific verses from the Word of God that will minister to the weakness of the person's soul will definitely be needed. Each situation is different, but through the power of the Holy Spirit and His leading, you are an able minister and can handle these difficult situations.

NOTES:

1. I have since read the books related to this course and attribute much of my understanding to this source. It is the most thorough teaching and practical application of these truths of which I am aware.
2. The term "diagnosis" is derived from a Greek word which indicates arriving at a decision through observation, dia = through, gnosis = knowledge. Epignosis is the biblical Greek word for revelation, epi = over, gnosis = knowledge, meaning that which is over our natural knowledge, as revealed by the Holy Spirit.

TRUE CONFESSIONS OF SPIRITUAL WARRIORS.

This devotional-style booklet contains "true confessions" (testimonies) of various biblical characters: Joseph, addressing the topic of strength in character; Daniel, on prayer and wisdom; David, on patience; Joshua, on following orders; John, on victory, and many others. They are by no means "a word" from these great men and women of the Bible, but personified insights to help us all become better warriors for the Lord Jesus Christ. This enjoyable booklet is full of life's valuable lessons from a biblical worldview. EB015 $4 E-book; PL06 $5 Booklet

T.R.U.C.O.P.S.

Jesus came to set the captives free, but many Christians feel inadequate to minister deliverance to those who need it. TRUCOPS (pronounced "tru cops") is a deliverance manual made simple. It offers a no-nonsense approach to deliverance, employing the acronym TRUCOPS to represent the major portals of demonic entry. Read this practical deliverance guidebook and build your faith to step out into the field of deliverance and boldly help yourself and others to be freed from demonic bondage. EB002 $8 E-book

TURNING CHURCHES INTO ARMIES.

The Holy Spirit is calling the church to war. The time has come for us to "shed our wool" and put on the whole armor of God to be bold soldiers of Yeshua the Warrior. If we are going to take our cities, states, and countries for the Lord Jesus Christ, we must unleash the warrior inside us and exercise our spiritual authority to carry out the Great Commission of discipling the nations. PL13 $10 Booklet

UNDERSTANDING & BREAKING THE SCHEMES OF THE DEVIL.

This powerful and equipping booklet has the potential to change your life. Discover and identify the particular scheme that the devil has perpetrated against you personally. Then, armed with solid biblical and practical understanding of how the scheme works, learn how to break that scheme with the sword of the Spirit. CDA04 $35 4 CDs + notes; EB003 $5 E-book; MP3A04 $16 4tracks + notes; PL10 $6 Booklet

UTILIZING GIFT MINISTRIES.

Delve into the revolutionary truth found in the Word of God concerning the relationship of para-church provisions and revival. The workbook format is easy to embrace for individual study or for group use among church leaders. BK03 $15 Book

WHERE ARE THE APOSTLES?

The question, "Where are the apostles?" begs to be answered not only by potential apostles but by every Christ-follower. This provision of leadership has been questioned, denied, and ignored; but as it properly reenters the contemporary church scene, great growth could result. Discover the long lost truths of this ministry and reactivate this vital provision to help equip the saints and edify the whole body of Christ. The late C. Peter Wagner, founder of The International Coalition of Apostles, said of Where Are the Apostles? "This is a highly readable book—it makes a long story short! In my opinion, there is no better entry-level book on apostles and apostolic ministry available today." EB012 $5 E-book

WHERE DO YOU GO WHEN YOU DIE?

This booklet examines the Scriptures and other ancient texts to discover where the spirit of man goes after the demise of its physical body. The ancient book of Enoch agrees with the Bible while offering more specifics of the places a departed spirit can go. Will your destination be Paradise, where righteousness reigns? Or will it be among the deep recesses of Sheol (Hell), where darkness and separation from God is guaranteed? Do not wait to discover your eternal fate. Find out now the choices you have for your eternal destination. Learn how the decision you make on this earth will determine which place will be yours. PL20 $7 Booklet

WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?

Does the image you hold of yourself line up with the truth of who God has made you to be? This is not a self-help book filled with cheap psychological tricks; instead, it is a Bible-based book to help build your confidence in what the Creator thinks and says about you. Discover the person God made you to be and walk in confidence and true boldness. Love yourself the way God loves you; change the way you think about yourself. PL21 $7 Booklet

THE WITNESS OF THE STARS (E. W. BULLINGER).

This reprint is of E. W. Bullinger's 1893 edition. Building upon ancient sources and current scientific data, Bullinger displays how the constellations bear witness to the accuracy of biblical prophetic truths.

Numerous celestial charts and diagrams are provided to lend vivid support to his conclusions. With the psalmist, one discovers that "the heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament shows His handiwork," thus encouraging Bible students to look upward for the coming of Christ. BK11 $15 Book

YAHWEH—THE SACRED NAME OF GOD (VICKI SIDES).

Vicki Sides reveals the power of an intimate relationship with God through the use of His sacred name, Yahweh. Details are examined as to how His name was obscured and lost over the centuries. God's desire is for us to call upon His name this very day—learn how. CDA24 $20 2 CDs; MP3A25 $8 2 Tracks

THE BATTLE-READY BELIEVER

by Michael Boldea

There is a battle coming. Are you ready for it? When compromise becomes our banner, and cowardice is seen as virtue, is it any wonder that so few among professing believers today are battle ready? In this introduction to spiritual warfare, Michael Boldea, Jr., answers key questions to help Christians stand upon the truth of Jesus Christ in this age of political correctness:

- How does the enemy camouflage himself in today's world?
- How can I recognize my allies in the battle?
- How can I effectively wield my weapons, and do I know them all? How do I stand strong when others around me are falling?
- How can I learn to discern my Commander's voice from all others?

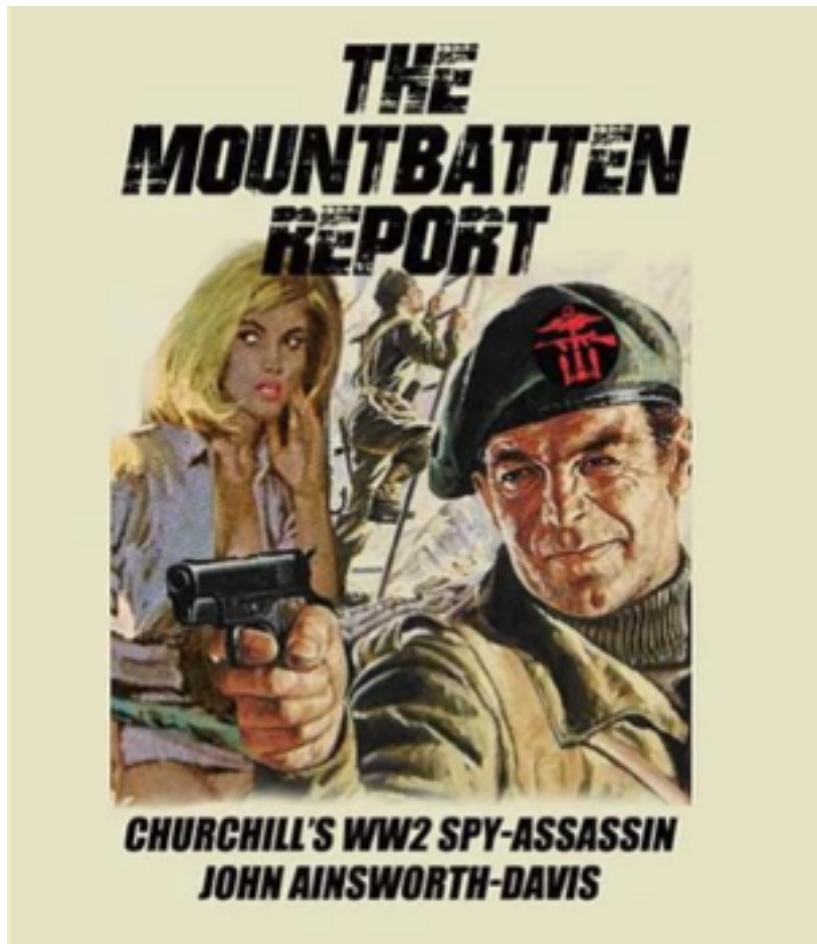

Battle is inevitable. Boldea's book helps the wise ready themselves through an analysis of the spiritual maturity of today's church, along with an analysis of its understanding of duty. The book compares what has been taught in the modern church to what the Bible actually says.

The concrete instruction contained in this book will prove invaluable to any believer whose aim is to become truly battle ready.

THE MOUNTBATTEN REPORT

BEST SELLING AUTHOR

John Ainsworth-Davis aka Christopher Creighton

(Operation James Bond 1996)

(The Khrushchev Objective 1987)

(The Paladin 1982)

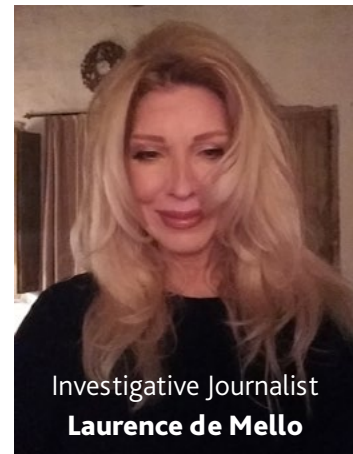

Teams up with Investigative Journalist Laurence de Mello to present the only definitive authorized work of The Mountbatten Report.

Includes never before seen documents and the curious backstory to the writing and publishing of this Special Launch Digital Edition.

John Ainsworth-Davis (JAD) was a British WWII Naval agent Spy-Assassin working directly for Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

Commissioned by Lord Louis Mountbatten, this report is JAD's very personal account of his growing up on the Chartwell estate as Desmond Morton's Godson and his subsequent grooming to become one of WWII's most controversial secret agents.

It also touches on JAD's introduction into privileged British and German society through his father Jack; a British Olympic Gold medalist and his father's close friend, the German Ambassador to London, Joachim Von Ribbentrop.

Ribbentrop later became Hitler's trusted Foreign Minister and was one of the first Nazis to be hanged at Nuremberg in 1946. JAD speaks candidly of his experiences of love, war and betrayal up to early 1945.

"The Mountbatten Report" is the prelude to Operation JAMES BOND (OPJB): a highly covert 1945 British op, in which JAD assisted Commander Ian Fleming RNVr in the rescue of Hitler's 'handler' and money man, Martin Bormann. Special Digital Edition for limited period only.

11 And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. 12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. 13 Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in stride and envy. 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts. Romans 13:11-14.

Greetings. May the Lord Jesus Christ bless your family and you. Having an opportunity to share of the Lord's kingdom initiatives here on the Cheyenne River Lakota reservation and elsewhere, I want also take this time to thank you for your prayers and partnership in knowing how many lives have been changed and impacted by the Word of God, His Spirit, and His messengers!

Whether we believe it or not, we are truly in a spiritual warfare for our lives and for those we spiritually fight for, including our precious families. In knowing the battle for souls can be overwhelming and disappointing, we're thankful the battle is the Lord's, not ours (1Samuel 17:47). Nor by our might nor by power but by My Spirit, says the Lord of hosts (Zec. 4:6).

Briefly, I would like to share two powerful and strategic events in which the Holy Spirit moved mightily in different dimensions. One has now become an annual event along with the annual 'Thanksgiving Meal in Honor of Jesus Christ' scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 24, 2019.

On Oct. 4, 2017, by faith (Heb. 11:1 & 2Cor. 5:7), a few of us begin a powerful, historic, epic, and strategic prayer walk carrying the cross in prayer across the Cheyenne River reservation including several of my family members. Beginning from the western to the eastern boundary, 6 days later on Mon. Oct 9, we completed the nearly 90 mile journey! Then the Lord expressed to me to begin the northern to southern boundary route which was completed on Sunday May 27, 2018 with our 6 year old (at the time) granddaughter Kandi helped us to carry! In Oct. 2018, a year later, the generational and territorial idol (White Buffalo Calf pipe) from the community of Green Grass on our reservation, amid protests, was taken off our reservation! Truly, it was the Lord's doing as we trust Him to forgive our people for the sin of idolatry and pagan worship by human tradition (Col. 2:8).

Since the first spiritual prayer walk, we begin a second prayer walk (Pray for Israel and the Nations) going the other direction east to west beginning on Sunday June 3, 2018 and completing on Thu. April 4, 2019! 9 But when the people of the land come before the Lord on the appointed feast days, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate; and whoever enters by way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. Ezekiel 46:9.

The second powerful event was the 2018 annual Christmas shoebox giveaway for the children and gift bags for adults. Last year by faith, we received shoebox presents from the First Baptist church located on the Sisseton Dakota reservation, a five hour drive one way in which we drove 2 vehicles to obtain the presents. We also received more presents from a ministry in OK which propelled us to take the gospel to 4 communities Dec. 23 thru 25. To our amazement, we were working as a God team to present the gospel, share testimonies and prayers for salvation and healing. Approximately 35 individuals, many who are children received Jesus Christ in the community of Cherry Creek! An area hard hit by religion and tradition. We do look forward to returning for more breakthroughs this year with your prayers and partnership as nearly 50 beautiful souls received Christ, many were children!

Last year, it was so amazing to witness how our family in the Body of Christ came together to help us prepare for the event! Brother Jim from Watertown, went out of his way to transport a load of presents from Sisseton SD when we were informed more presents were available! By himself, he loaded his truck camper with the remaining presents and drove all the way to Cheyenne River reservation to deliver the gifts. Another brother Don, transported from the Rosebud reservation more presents before returning to MT! Cameron, Gwen and children of Wisconsin helped immensely by helping to sort and bag the presents for distribution in the city of Eagle Butte and Green Grass, LaPlante and Cherry Creek communities! I also want to mention ministry team members who went above and beyond to be hands and feet for the Lord in helping in a variety of areas for several evenings to help prepare.

As the 'Pray for Israel and the Nations' southern to the northern journey continues, the next phase of the prayer walk will be going through the city of Eagle Butte again with approximately 40 miles to go! With the back to back annual events in Nov. & Dec. along with the coat drive for the homeless, we will continue to keep sharing the gospel along with testimony of how God of Israel is changing our lives as we move from glory to glory, faith to faith! And knowing the battle is the Lord's, we, being a front runner for the Lord, are in the brunt of Satan's attacks especially from religion and tradition. Throughout the trials we persevere and endure to the end no matter the cost, because every soul is precious and every life matters.

As the Word of God has a way of penetrating our very being, dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart (Heb. 4:12), it moves me all the more to unleash it by the Spirit of truth (John 16:13) to set the captives free from unbelief and false beliefs. By the favor of the Lord, and with conviction, 9 beautiful couples made a powerful decision to honor Jesus in their relationship by sharing their wedding vows in 2019 alone with a total of 17 weddings since July 2014! Hallelujah! Some have gone on to begin their ministry, moved off the reservation to begin a new life and some are employed by our Tribe!

7 "And to the angel of the church of Philadelphia write, 'These things says He who is holy, He who is true, "He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens"; 8 "I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My name. Revelation 3:7-8.

For the glory of the Lord, as He opened doors for evangelism in MD, VA, AL, TN & MN this year, the Spirit of the Lord also opened doors for the first time in the communities of Wounded Knee and Bridger. On a fateful and sad day in the history of the United States of America on Dec. 29 1890, nearly 300 Lakota men, women, children and babies were murdered in what is recorded as the last massacre of the First Nations people of North America. The slaughter has not ended, spiritually. As our people remember the massacre of Wounded Knee, it is not a coincidence the Lord took us to both places to evangelize and pray this year. Bridger community on the Cheyenne River Lakota reservation was the last outpost where Chief Spotted Elk, aka Chief Big Foot and followers rested briefly before fleeing to the Red Cloud Agency in Pine Ridge SD, only to be apprehended at Wounded Knee creek in Dec. 1890.

As the Lord promises to fill those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, (Matt. 5:6) He blesses and honors. For throughout the year, He has sent anointed ministers of the Lord, Arthur, Donnie, Bryan, Terri, Ramin from Iran, John L., just to name a few. As my wife and I celebrated our 5th anniversary on June 14th 2019, the ministry hosted several ministers from several states including Darryl and Mary from MD who joined us with others for 8 days of Kingdom assignments and bearing the cross in prayer! The Lord our Provider has opened a huge door to share on Omegaman Blog talk radio with host brother Shannon Davis who has now partnered with the ministry to see a powerful movement of Holy Spirit believers.

In closing, we thank Abba Father for sending His Son Jesus to bring down the gates of hell on earth by His Spirit, His Word and His crown creation! We love you and thank Him all the more for the Kingdom connection! Eternally grateful and humbled. Jerome, Darcy and RWM.

IS HELL ETERNAL OR TEMPORARY?

by: Michael W. Smith
HardcoreChristianity.Com

We read in the Scripture that Heaven and Hell are eternal. Does this mean that they will never end? What does the Word actually reveal about this subject?

1. Phil. 4:20 states that the GLORY OF GOD is "forever and ever," meaning it will never come to an end. This Greek phrase (eis aion aion) means "unto age to age without end." Heb. 13:8 states that JESUS CHRIST is the same yesterday, today and forever (eis aion), meaning that the Son of God never changes into perpetuity. I Peter 1:23 & 25 states that the WORD OF GOD lives and abides "forever" (eis aion: unto the ages), meaning that it never ends. John 6:58 states that Jesus is the BREAD OF LIFE and if one eats Him, they shall "live forever" (eis aion), meaning they will always be alive and He will never die. II Peter 1:11 states the the KINGDOM OF CHRIST is "everlasting" (aionios: without ending or ceasing). I Tim. 6:16 states that the HONOR and POWER of God is "everlasting" (aionios), meaning it never ends. It is universally agreed in all Christian religions, cults & denominations that the above Scriptures and the associate Greek words literally mean Eternal or Everlasting (without ever coming to an end).

2. In Mt. 25:41 Jesus said that on Judgment Day the sinners on his left are cursed and will be cast into Hell which is described as "everlasting" fire (aionios pur) and that Hell (hades) was originally prepared for the Devil and his Angels, not humans. In verse 46 Jesus explains that sinners will be sent to "everlasting" punishment and the righteous will be sent to life "eternal." The Greek word "aionios" is used for BOTH WORDS in this verse and mean the same thing. Mt. 18:8 states that if your hand offends you it is better to cut it off and go thru life without a hand than to have two hands to be cast into the "everlasting" (aionios) fire of Hell. In verse 44 & 46 Jesus says that the worms in Hell do not die and the fires of Hell are not quenched (GK: sbenny-mi: extinguished). THE FIRES OF HELL WILL NEVER BE PUT OUT. Rev. 20:10 states that the Devil and the False Prophet will be cast into the Lake of Fire (GK: limne pur: pond of flames) and will be tormented "forever and ever" (GK: eis aion aion), meaning they will never ever escape the punishment of Hell. In the 14th verse it says that Death and Hell (GK: hades) are cast into the Lake of Fire and that this is the 2nd death.

3. There are a few Satanic cults that teach that Hell will someday burn out and that everyone in Hell will get out after an unknown period of time or purification. This is an obvious fabrication of familiar spirits. Satan wants people to think that they can live in sin and eventually be saved without having to repent or surrender their will to Christ. The exact same words that state that Heaven, God's Glory, God's Word and Jesus as eternal and never ending also say Hell, punishment for sinners and punishment for Satan and his angels are eternal and never end. Hell will obviously never be extinguished and neither the Devil or his angels or his human servants will ever get out!

DELIVERANCE FROM SPIRITS OF SEXUAL ABUSE BREAKING THE CHAINS OF RAPE AND INCEST

The information in this book is intended to give spiritual insight of the ministry of deliverance and its purpose in breaking strongholds that effect rape and incest victims.

Once we prayed deliverance for a sister that was complaining about her memory being bound and blocked. When we started praying for her, the Spirit of God spoke to me and said, "Take authority over spirits of rape and incest that she has been burying in her emotions by trying to hide it."

When we did, the demons came to the surface and the sister was delivered and set free from hidden spirits of rape since she was a child.

DREAM KILLERS

PRACTICAL WISDOM ON HOW TO NOT ALLOW DREAM KILLERS TO STOP YOU!

I've noticed that whenever people try to improve themselves and reach for more than the normal or average goals of life, they are often hated, resented, talked about, read the wrong way, or considered prideful.

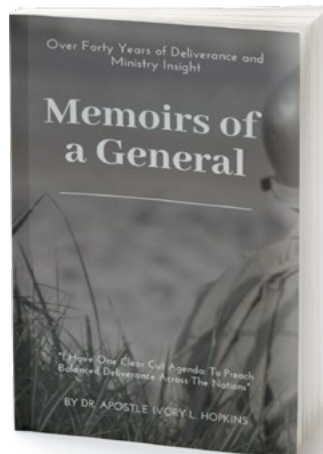

All of these feelings are nothing more than Satan's desire to stop them from sowing into the earth the purpose and destiny that God put them here for. His goal is to destroy all their gifts and potential that their generation needs.

MEMOIRS OF A GENERAL

by Apostle Dr. Ivory Hopkins

Memoirs of a General attempts to equip the believer with warfare tactics used in deliverance ministry and in spiritual warfare. I personally believe that the entire Body of Christ should be ready and knowledgeable enough to cast out demons.

I do not believe that any Christian should be ignorant of the devil's devices. Somewhere along the line, you are going to have to know how to pull down strongholds and destroy the works of the devil. In fact, it is your privilege and your honor. This book will inspire and prepare you to set the captives free.

Deliverance and the Prophetic working together to bring accuracy to the body of Christ.

I must begin by saying I believe 100% in prophecy, but don't believe that we are to exempt them from being discerned or judging them by the word of God to make sure they're not mixed with demonic counterfeits.

I have had to deliver many people who have been taken over by spirits that use misunderstandings and deception to bind people by using deception in prophecy.

21ST CENTURY WARFARE PRAYERS

EFFECTIVE SPIRITUAL WAFARES IN THE 21ST CENTURY

With the arrival of the 21st century, Christianity has moved into its greatest era of challenge. With governments seeking to take totalitarian control of their populations and Christian religious institutions becoming less and less relevant, the battle in the end times had become more intense. Like the Apostles and their followers of the first three centuries, the Christian church has been forced to abandon the formality of their church buildings, meeting in homes and ministering in the streets. As a result, Christians have discovered that a spiritual war awaits them. The evil ones who countered Jesus and the apostles in the first century has returned in even greater force to stop the Christian ministry in the 21st century. Unlike the apostles, who were trained at the feet of Jesus, the church of today is poorly prepared to battle these evil spirits. To improve the spiritual preparedness of the Christian church, author Jon van Helsing has released this second edition of warfare prayers to address the deficiency and bring the church of Jesus Christ into a level of victory not seen since the first century. Professor van Helsing addresses the issues of personal and family protection, the breaking of curses, various types and forms of witchcraft, the devil's Akashic database, and the Quantum Matrix. Join the battle and begin the process of living a successful Christian life.

MINISTRY UPDATE

By Pastor Mel Novak
www.melnovak.com

Warm greetings in the name of our Blessed & soon coming KING, JESUS CHRIST. Satan, thru the Anti-christ (I John 4:3) wants to rule the world from the Temple Mount, BUT GOD has decreed in the context of the end of the age says in Ps. 2:6, "Yet have I set my KING upon MY Holy Hill of Zion."

To the SON, the FATHER entreats, "Ask of ME, & I shall give YOU the heathen for YOUR inheritance, & the uttermost parts of the earth for YOUR possession. YOU shall break the (nations) with a rod of iron. YOU shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel," (Ps. 2:8, 9).

And to the world HE invites, "Be wise now therefore, O you Kings: be instructed you judges of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear & rejoice with trembling. Kiss the SON, lest HE be angry & you perish from the way. When HIS wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are ALL that put their TRUST IN HIM (Ps. 2:10-12).

August was an awesome month for me. I spent 7 days in Oregon with Lea & family and went to Washington to preach at Larch Mountain Prison for dear friend & Brother Chaplain Jakstas. Chaplain & friend Ron Brandon drove me there. 61 inmates came to the chapel service and 61 prayed the Salvation Prayer. All received the Arsenal Prayer.

After the harvest, I came back home & ministered in the Fred Jordan Mission at Skid Row, 3 times. Also did two most powerful Omega Man Internet Shows with Anointed Man of God, Shannon Ray Davis. It's amazing to me that people in 167 countries tune in. P.T.L.

My time with Lea, Jeremy, Elijah, Ali Mae & Ryan was absolutely wonderful. I get so much LOVE. On August 24th, I was honored and blessed to do the wedding ceremony for Lea & Jeremy. Lea looked gorgeous. Jeremy is like a son I never had. It was a beautiful wedding. Elijah & Ryan walked Lea down the aisle. Ali Mae was the flower girl.

I came back home again & was a guest speaker at the Persian Church for Pastor Martin which was a blessing.

My Bible Studies were well attended. One my teachings was on the dangers of Depression & the other on Matthew 11:28-30. Both were important and well received.

This month brought countless calls for prayer & counselling. So many have deadly wounds that go deeper or are more painful & damaging to the human soul as those incurred by REJECTION. Today, it is almost impossible to find anyone who, at some point in their life has not experienced the pain of REJECTION.

Some people feel the attack of REJECTION while still in the womb, as in the case of an unwanted pregnancy. REJECTION is a weapon that is very effectively used by enemy of our soul in his all-out war against mankind (II Cor. 10:3). Satan is the real culprit behind REJECTION!

REJECTION produces feelings of being unloved, unwanted, worthless, somehow not measuring up to expected standards. REJECTION comes thru the words & actions of loved ones, since they are the ones we are vulnerable to.

What about childhood thru adolescence? Physical embarrassing ridicule are cutting wounds: too short; fat; big nose. You are stupid, clumsy & will never amount to anything. This REJECTION is also displayed by physical abuse. Wounds to the body will heal, the emotional pain is still there from the wounds to the soul that refuse to heal.

REJECTION is also displayed thru being ignored, by the absence of attention. Perhaps it is because of large families or uncaring step parents. In either case, the missing ingredient is LOVE. We are created by a GOD who is LOVE (I John 4:8, 20). The need for LOVE & ACCEPTANCE is inherent in every child from the time of his conception onward.

However, when it comes to the degree of pain in causes, the BETRAYAL of a spouse is possibly the worst form of REJECTION. Infidelity cuts to the deepest recesses of heart & soul, causing tremendous emotional upheaval.

Closely related to BETRAYAL is ABANDONMENT, where a loved one simply walks out of a person's life. With these 2 & REJECTION hampers one's ability to relate to other people, & worse, in their ability to relate to GOD. Their emotions are uncontrollable & can run the gamut from suicidal depression to wild outbursts of anger & rage. They crave LOVE & ACCEPTANCE but it is coupled with fear & distrust.

A mind that is filled with unresolved pain & unmet needs will distort everything that filters thru it. That's why so many have such a difficult time accepting the FACT that GOD LOVES THEM (Jer. 31:3).

But, PRAISE GOD! He has the answer! If you have been the victim of REJECTION, you need to be fully assured of this fact: There are absolutely NO wounds that the devil has inflicted upon you that our GREAT PHYSICIAN does not have the remedy for, so you can be totally & completely healed! (Ps. 147:3; Jeremiah 30:17).

Every believer must know they are NEVER alone (Heb. 13:5; Matt. 28:20; Deut. 31:6, 8).

Go to my website: www.melnovak.com & download my Warfare Arsenal Prayer & PRAY it DAILY. Until next month, LORD bless you & thank you & praise HIM for your love offerings.

In HIS Majesty's Service,

Mel ♥

SOUL-DIER FOR CHRIST

Mel Novak, a dedicated SOULdier for Christ, is an Ordained Minister called by God to share the Good News of Jesus Christ and salvation to the homeless on skid row and in prisons. (Matt. 25:34-40, Isaiah 58:6,7,10,11).

For the past 37 years, Mel has faithfully ministered on the streets of L.A., and in the chapel services at the Union Rescue Mission, Fred Jordan Mission, L.A.

Mission and the Long Beach Rescue Mission. Mel has also ministered at prisons for 36 years, in penitentiaries from San Quentin and Pelican Bay in California, to New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Florida, Alabama, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Washington, and Oregon.

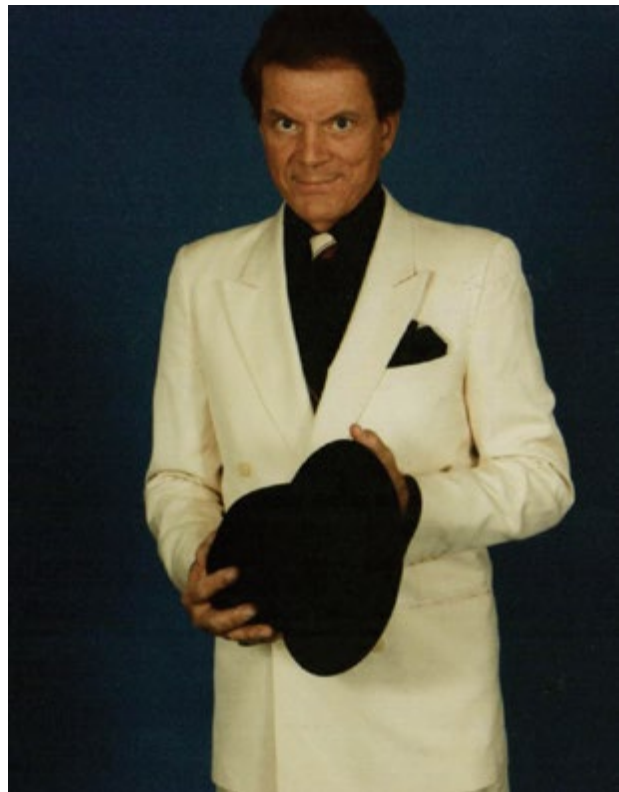

Over 187,000 have accepted God's precious gift of salvation through Grace, by receiving Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior or rededicating their lives.(Eph. 2:8) Jesus sets the captives free (Isaiah 61:1) and by his stripes they are healed (Isaiah 53:5) spiritually, mentally, emotionally, and physically.

Although Mel believes that Christ heals more important things than bodies, he has personally experienced God's miraculous healing power. As a child, Mel's leg was saved from amputation through prayer. Years later, his throat was healed by the Lord after having ten failed surgeries in ten years. A serious injury to the eye, a torn cornea, was healed by the Lord only hours before surgery. During Easter of 1983, Mel was spared from death after serious hemorrhaging from surgery. On March 14, 1998, Mel almost died from peritonitis caused by an anti-inflammatory prescription medication. God spared Mel's life seven times and he had 28 surgeries. Mel was also healed of prostate cancer in October of 2010 without chemo or radiation.

A native of Pittsburgh, Mel was an outstanding athlete in several sports. He passed up 60 football scholarship offers and signed a pro baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates. His career was cut short by a massive rotator cuff injury. Despite the pain and setback from his injury, Mel learned even more clearly "that God works all things together for the good of those who love him and for those called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28). God has blessed Mel with many miracles (Luke 1:37; Jeremiah 32:17 & 27). God does NOT change (Mal. 3:6, Heb. 13:8).

Mel has starred or co-starred in 54 feature films. Mel is well known for Bruce Lee's "GAME OF DEATH"; BLACK BELT JONES; Yul Brynner's "THE ULTIMATE WARRIOR"; Steve McQueen's TOM HORN; & Chuck Norris's "EYE FOR AN EYE". Some of his recent completed roles are: SYNDICATE SMASHER; TALES OF FRANKENSTEIN; WHEN IT RINGS; AN HOUR TO KILL; ETERNAL CODE; NEMESIS-5; FIGHT OR DIE; HOLY TERROR; ROBO WOMAN; SAMURAI COP 2, DEADLY VENGEANCE; CHECK POINT; ASH & BONE & LA SHARK ATTACK. Other starring roles Mel has done are: giANTS; POWER ELITE; S.W.A.T.; WAR-HEAD ONE; THUNDERKICK; VAMPIRE ASSASSIN; EXPERT WEAPON; SWORD OF HEAVEN; FORCE OF DARKNESS; FAMILY REUNION; CAPITAL PUNISHMENT and others. Having died twenty-five times on screen, he says happily, "I get what I deserve in the end. The Lord's justice is very much like that."

Mel has been a member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts for 16 years. Even through his testimony is powerful and thousands find Christ through his preaching and teaching, Mel insists he's not the one doing the work. "I give God the honor, worship and glory." Jesus Himself said, "No man can come to Me unless the Father first draws him." (John 6:44). So I count it an honor and a privilege to be able to share my faith and lead lost souls to Christ. The Lord truly bless-es me as I serve Him in whatever way He leads. After all, Jesus Himself came to serve, not to be served. can we do less?(Matt. 20:28) I believe God designed my life's message.

PRAISE THE LORD

TESTIMONY OF THE MONTH

TESTIMONY OF BRADY, “THE PRODIGAL SON”

I grew up in a home void of a father so my mom had to work 2 jobs just to get by so I didn't have much guidance and tried to figure out life on my own. I quickly found my identity in the streets and a gangster life style which was a good way to vent my anger. I found football at the age of 8 and quickly realized it was the perfect sport for me and for the next 14 years football became my passion next to fighting and kicking it with the homies. Even though I was in and out of juvenile hall and later the county jail, football was always there to help put the pieces back together. This gave me a purpose and a hope. It wasn't until getting arrested again in college and losing my football scholarship that I really took a turn for the worst. I began to fill the void with drugs and the only other thing I was good at was gang banging and violence. I began using meth amphetamine along with drinking and any other drug I could get my hands on. I quickly went from selling it and snorting it to cooking it and shooting it. I was so lost and wicked that I was convinced I wanted to be a killer and surrounded myself with such. Fights, robberies, stabbings, shootouts were a common occurrence and I glorified the dark side. I eventually made it to prison and continued to want to climb the ranks of the prison system. I was quick to mock Christians because in prison we considered it a weakness, plus I personally thought Christianity was a joke... that Jesus was just a myth...boy was I wrong. It wasn't until sitting in the hole wasting away and totally secluded that JESUS CHRIST revealed himself to me through His holy word. Something changed inside me and the seed GOD had planted began to grow. Shortly after, while doing time at Pelican Bay State Prison, I went to a church service and that is where I met Mel Novak... and my life changed. He talked about Jesus and the power of his forgiveness and how much He truly loved us... and how much satan wants to destroy us. Mel told me that JESUS was my father and he'd been there all along just waiting for me to come home to His open arms and lovingly embraced me... and he was right. Mel's knowledge and sincerity really affected me and little did I know he would end up becoming my personal mentor, my pastor, and my close friend. Since my release in 2007, Mel has been pivotal in my walk with GOD because he's always calling to check up on me and inviting me to Bible study... or helping me when I really need it. Mel Novak is a true Soldier for CHRIST, a real spiritual warrior that speaks Biblical wisdom and fears nothing but GOD himself. Mel is my role model. I know JESUS placed him in my life like a light house on the shore guiding a lost ship home. JESUS CHRIST has completely changed my heart and renewed my mind. I've been sober, serving the Lord since I received Jesus Christ as my Lord and Saviour and have 3 beautiful kids... and spend a lot of time ministering downtown on Skid row in Los Angeles with Mel and other Christian brothers. I am a living testimony to GOD'S grace and mercy that saved a wretch like me. I am a new man. I urge everyone to open their heart and mind to the power of GOD'S love and forgiveness. He's real and living and breathing... and is waiting for you to call. Praise be to JESUS CHRIST, but thanks be to Brother Mel, I love you man!

THE COMETS OF GOD

NEW SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE FOR GOD

by Jeffrey Goodman, Ph.D.

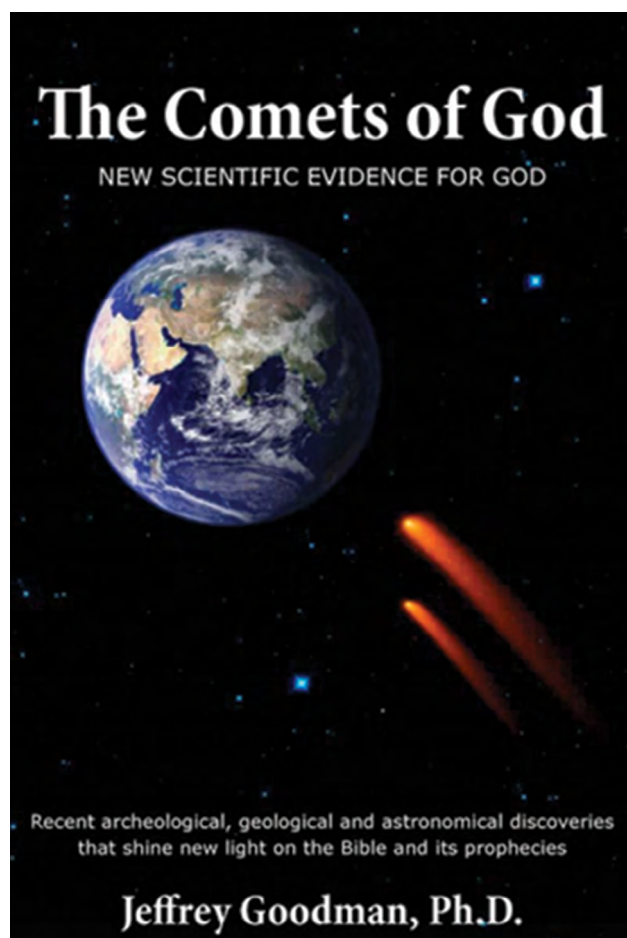

THE COMETS OF GOD shows that almost all of the large-scale catastrophes described or prophesied in the Bible can be explained as a consequence of cometary phenomena.

Dr. Goodman, an archeologist and geologist, has spent 20 years studying the Bible's stories and prophecies of catastrophe.

His research reveals important scientific information hidden in the Bible. In a process that can be called «Biblical CSI,» Goodman translated the original Hebrew words of the Bible according to their ancient usage, and then related them to recent archeological, geological, and astronomical discoveries.

What Goodman discovered were dramatically different explanations for these events than the traditional translations have told. THE COMETS OF GOD documents significant scientific evidence that supports the Bible and helps to establish the reality of the ancient catastrophic events recorded in the Bible.

Comets are the common denominator for the Flood, the destruction of the Tower of Babel, the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, some of the plagues of the Exodus, Joshua's great victory over the Amorites, Debra and Barak's victory over the Canaanites, and the «blast» that killed 185,000 Assyrians during the rule of King Hezekiah.

THE COMETS OF GOD also gives scientific explanations for the catastrophic events the Bible prophesies to occur during the «end times.» Many will be surprised to learn that the key to understanding passages such as the Seven Trumpets and Seven Vials of Revelation are comets, not nuclear bombs.

Indeed, a large comet impact could cause the earth to rock in space, cause an earthquake that is over 14 on the Richter scale, unleash a series of tsunamis whose waves exceed a mile in height, and even cause the earth's crust to melt.

Many prophetic passages suddenly make sense once we recognize that much of Revelation's mysterious imagery is describing the effects of different types of comet impact. How did the writers of the Bible come to 'know' so much about comets, the giant ice balls of space, before modern science?

INVISIBLE ENEMIES

by Jim Croft

In the last 40 years, there has been a resurgence of New Testament deliverance ministry.

On the forefront of this movement is Jim Croft, pastor, teacher, and deliverance minister.

In Invisible Enemies, Croft takes readers on a journey into the heart of deliverance ministry.

Full of personal testimonies from Croft, his family, and others who have been delivered, Invisible Enemies also exposes and counters some of the more aberrant methodologies that have become the norm.

Even better, Croft shows believers how to free themselves and others from demonic powers and how they can maintain that freedom.

Including topics such as:

- The reality of the demonic realm
- The different types of evil spirits

- How demons enter and display their presence
- Why it's not unusual for Christians to need ministry
- How to minister deliverance

THE POWER OF ONE

by: Pastor Jim Croft

There's a heartbreak for many Christian of this generation. They're married to an unsaved spouse and/or have teen/adult children who're indifferent and in many cases hostile towards godliness. Though the basic ingredients of the marriage and parental love might be in place, the stumbling block to relational harmony is loyalty to Jesus of Nazareth. This situation is monumental in the Body of Christ. My experience is that the majority of the early adult children of believers are disinterested, even hateful toward a lifestyle where Christ is one's life. There are many a Christian parent who was overjoyed to hear childhood confessions of faith. The same saints have since seen the very same kids mutate into defiant arguers at any mention of the Bible. I've met many children whose strongest agitation is the voice of a godly parent who's on a spiritual soap box about how they ought to act & be.

I believe there's a spiritual remedy that can turn these situations around. It will cost you the discipline of keeping your mouth shut. They know what you think about everything and can predict the admonitions you're about to speak on any given topic. Feeling an incoming lecture infuriates their dignity. The answer is to cultivate an entirely different attitude about who you are in God's economy for your family members' lives. This includes holding them in an entirely new light in your spirit, soul, thoughts & in the countenance of your demeanor whether near or away from them. You will look upon them as sanctified, holy, set apart for God's purposes. By the Word of God, their sin, corruption & contrary blasphemous ways are irrelevant. The fact of their familial union to you, makes them holy unto God, set apart for his cause. Your spiritual power as a singular individual puts the blood of the Lamb on your entire household. No matter what the character or spiritual attitudes of anyone in your house; the angel of death will pass over without bringing harm.

The principle is based upon Psa 68:6 & 1 Cor 7:14. God sets a solitary in families. In this context, a solitary is a family member who has experienced God in a unique dimension not yet personally experienced by the other family members. The purpose of the planting of the solitary is to liberate the other members from their particular chains of bondage. However, families that don't yet have a godly solitary dwell in a desolate land. The saved member of a family is the Lord's solitary. That's you.

Husband and wife are one flesh. Miraculous truths are set in motion by this joining according to 1 Cor 7:14. For instance, a born-again wife's sanctification sets her husband apart as equally holy though he might be impatient with spiritual garble. If this was not so, the couple's children would be by unclean, demonically polluted, accursed. However, they are not.

They're as holy-fied as their mother. What a marvelous revelation this was for the Corinthian believers and for us today. In keeping with 1 Cor 6:9-11 many of them came from multiple generations of ritualistic idolatrous lewdness, substance abuse and criminality. However, by one family member's conversion, the consequential curses that would have continued in that family unit's children, were suspended.

The Jewish slaves who ate the Passover were not experienced Yehovah worshipers. Most were idolaters and actually carried their household idols with them into the wilderness when led by Moses. Idols in their houses and imperfection of worship did not nullify the power of the blood on their doors to protect them from the death angel. The solitary believer is the blood on & in a household. You can have the same attitude as Paul when in storm-tossed seas for 2 weeks. You can believe that your fellow passengers in your ship/house are safe. Why, because they're with you.

From now on when around your gospel ornerly spouse and children: Look at them with heart and eyes aglow with something that you know that they don't know. They've contracted the glorious virus & lineage of your holiness regardless of what they think & how they act. Because of you, God has set them apart to come down with an eternal case of loving and glorifying the Lord.

When other people inquire about them, don't take them down another trek about your heartbreaks over a God hating spouse & kids. Tell them you're seeing them walking in more holiness each day. And, that you have every confidence plus biblical evidence that they belong to God. That's the power of one.

BASIC DELIVERANCE COURSE

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Please allow us to introduce ourselves. We are Doctors Vann and Sandy Hutchinson from Mullins, SC. We have been in Christian ministry for over thirty years emphasizing the transformation of church members into warriors for Christ. In our personal ministry, we have seen many miracles, healings, and deliverances from demonic oppression through the name of our Lord Jesus. Sandy has a tremendous testimony of God's healing power after twenty years of asthma, allergies, and COPD. Vann has a testimony of raising a lady from the dead through the power of the name of Jesus.

As the latter-day church prepares the way for an end-time revival, we believe that the Holy Spirit is raising up an army of trained, motivated, and equipped believers from all denominations to go forth and demonstrate the power of a living God. He has trained and anointed us to be teachers in the body of Christ in order to help pave the way for this revival of power, signs, and wonders.

It is our goal to assist the church in moving beyond the "grasshopper" mentality (Num. 13:30-33) to that of Caleb who said, "Let us go up at once and possess it, for we are well able to overcome." Please allow us to assist you and your congregation by sharing the vision and revelations that God has given us. We are available for all church services, revivals, conferences, and seminars. You may get in touch with us by visiting the contact page, or sending an email to info@vannhutchinsonministries.org

In the second CD of this series, Dr. Hutchinson leads the listeners through a detailed renunciation of Freemasonry and through a deliverance session in order to set them free from the Masonic curses. Freemasonry curses need to be broken whether they are from direct participation or from ancestral participation in this organization.

The Mind: A Gateway for Demons

In this 4-CD series, Dr. Hutchinson presents a model for basic deliverance. He describes mankind as a triune being of spirit, soul, and body. He explains how the human spirit and flesh war against each other with the battle ground being in the mind. DELIVERANCE FROM ADVERSE CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES (ACES)

by Drs. Vann and Sandra Hutchinson

There have been many studies conducted and books written on Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) and their effects on the quality of life in adulthood. However, none have included demonic deliverance as a possible means for overcoming these adverse events.

Drs. Vann and Sandy Hutchinson feel that this present work is the most important book that they have written. They explain how demonic spirits enter through toxic stress and affect brain development, emotional control, and physical health both in childhood and throughout life.

The book is based on hundreds of articles and statistical research studies on the effects of ACEs. It concludes with instructions on how to be delivered from ACEs that have tormented you and destroyed your health and emotional well-being.

The Walking Dead book chronicles the story of the Lamb family (a fictitious name) that was living in Central Florida where a white witch that cast deadly spells upon them almost cost Rita Lamb her life.

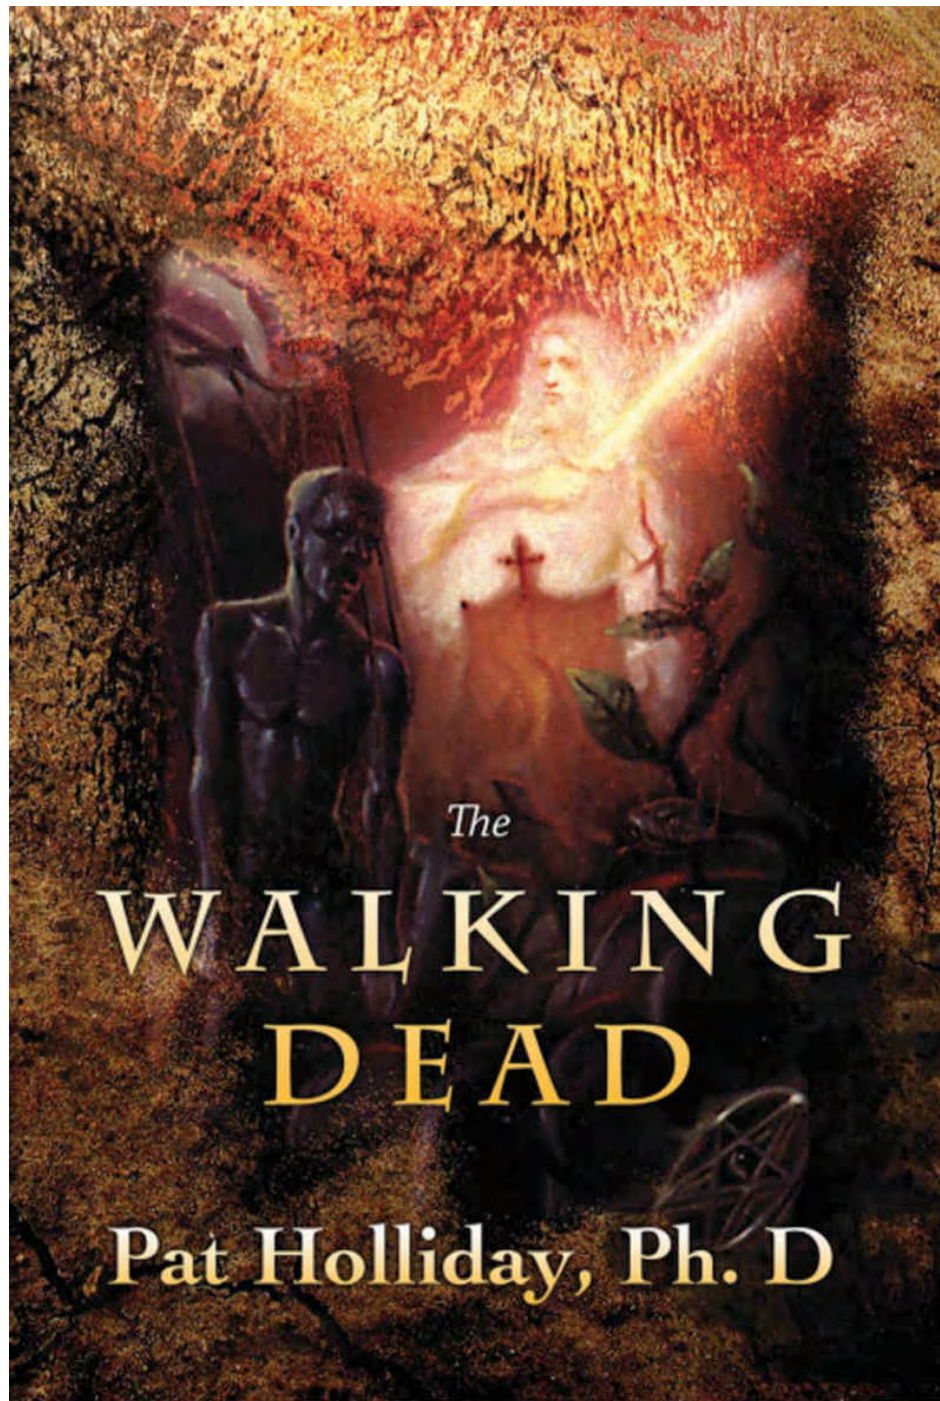

It also reveals how witchcraft power was used against the teenagers in the community to influence them to become involved with the powers of darkness. They became like the walking dead after the white witch gave them drugs and taught them witchcraft rituals in the local cemetery opening them up to demon possession. No one can dabble in witchcraft and come away unshackled however through Jesus, one can be delivered! (Matt. 18:18)

ABOUT GENE

My name is Gene Moody and I have been in the ministry over 35 years.

Earline, my late wife, was with me in the ministry until she went to be with the Lord on July 22, 1998.

We were a husband and wife team having the goal of setting the captives free.

Our main publication is the Deliverance Manual.

It took about twenty years to complete, and about a year of my life and a year of Earline's life to write. The manual is being circulated around the world. This is our primary way of teaching people how to do deliverance as they are led by the Holy Spirit. God told us to help train Him an army to minister deliverance.

Spiritual Warfare Manual, How To Do Deliverance Manual, Sexual Deliverance Manual, Witchcraft Deliverance Manual, Curses Deliverance Manual and Healing Deliverance Manual are additions to the Deliverance Manual. We have some Christian booklets (Good Homemaker – Proverbs 31, The Curse of the Bastard and Inherited Sexual Sins) and our testimony: From Death Into Real Life. On this website you can access our Deliverance Manual and other Manuals, and writings by us and End-Time Deliverance Ministries.

Before Earline had kidney failure, we spent about a month out of each year at Lake Hamilton Bible Camp at their six camp meetings ministering deliverance and healing. Otherwise we spent about another month ministering in churches, fellowships, prayer meetings, homes, jails, prisons and other public places. There we would teach, minister and counsel to groups and individuals. We ministered to the lay Christians and five-fold ministry. This is basically a ministry of helps to the Body of Christ.

We would work with people over the telephone, in the mail, in our home, in Christian settings and in public places. The ministry still continues in this manner as the Lord sets the schedule. My home is open for prayer meetings and for traveling ministers to stay in. I work with other ministers to assist them in special ministry that the Lord has placed on their hearts.

An instruction manual on how to break curses

A manual to guide in healing and deliverance from diseases, assisting in the following steps: 1. First, we should seek GOD for deliverance and healing. This means applying the principles of casting out demons and anointing with oil for healing. 2. Second, we should fast and pray to the LORD for our deliverance and healing. We should allow time for GOD to answer us. This may not be a short period of time. 3. Third, if GOD does not heal or deliver us from the infirmity, seek the medical profession for curative medicines or even operations. 4. Fourth, have someone take us through deliverance (or do self deliverance) for any spiritual effects of taking pharmaceuticals or of the cutting of the flesh. Break and return evil curses that may have been put upon you.

A deliverance manual dealing with issues pertaining to the End Times.

Deliverance explained

So, I got a piece of paper and drew a line down the middle of the page, and I began to examine myself, writing those things down, the good—the bad—and the ugly.

What I realized was that my dad was a fearful man. My dad was afraid of success. The oil refinery he worked for wanted to promote him on the job, but he would not take the promotion. His excuse was that it would take him away from his family, but it also held us back financially, in ways that would not have been if he had taken the promotion.

Dad was a family man, and I loved that about him, but he had many fears. He had an inferiority complex. If friends wanted to invite him someplace, if he could not reciprocate in like manner, he would not go, and I never understood that. And he would have outbursts of anger even though he was not an angry man. He was a very easy-going person and fun to be with, but there were things that would “set him off”. His reaction to things was an outburst of anger and although he was never abusive it wasn’t fitting. On the other hand, he was kind, thoughtful, spiritually sensitive, had a great deal of wisdom, was a man of integrity with a great personality and had a sense of humor. He was a man who understood Godly authority and discipline. He was the spiritual leader of our home.

I thought when I left home and got away from my older brother who loved agitating me to a rage, I would not have rage anymore. And that seemed to be true until I married, and Mike and I had our first baby. At that point I found that anger thing was still there... and I could NOT control it. This was scary to me because I was afraid I was going to hurt my baby and so one day I went to a psychiatrist. He didn’t cure me of my anger, but he did help me understand some things — and charged me a lot of money.

My dad also had allergies and Chronic sinusitis and I had chronic sinusitis too. He (and my mother’s mother) had migraine headaches...I had migraine headaches. He also had dry skin. I had dry skin.

The medical profession understands that infirmities are inherited. That's why, when you go to a doctor you are asked to fill out the form checking the boxes of all the infirmities that run in your family!

I had recognized for many years that these outward manifestations were connected to an "inward thing".

An "inward thing" is something in you that is working out in your body. So, now you go to the doctor and they give you a list a mile long. I haven't been to the doctor in probably 15 years, but I know the list is pages and pages by now. There are more and more sicknesses, chronic sicknesses.

Many are called syndromes because they don't know what causes them nor do they know how to get rid of them. But they can medicate you so you can live with it, and when the side-effects show up, there is another medicine to counter-act the side effects! But Jesus showed us a more excellent way.

He doesn't want you to have any infirmities. The problem with taking the medicine is you never get to the "inward thing". You just learn to live with the "outward thing". So, doctors understand this. Science understand this. The DNA, the inherited things, the genetic things. You know I'm always amused when they come up and say, scientists now believe, or the medical community now believes that such and such an illness is hereditary. Everything is!

I want you to turn to Genesis chapter 1. You know if scientist would just read their Bibles, they would learn a lot of things. Genesis chapter 1 verse 11.

Genesis 1:11 “And God said let the Earth bring forth vegetation, the herb yielding seed, the fruit tree yielding fruit, after its kind whose seed is in itself upon the Earth, and it was so. And the Earth brought forth vegetation, herb yielding seed after its kind, and the tree yielding fruit whose seed was in itself, after its kind. And God saw that it was good.”

Now of course this was before “the fall”. After the fall, the seed of man was corrupted.

There is a doctrine that would have us believe that once you are “Saved”, “demons” cannot take up habitation in a Christian because of the presence of the Holy Ghost — and the Holy Ghost cannot live together in the same “house”, or body. After all,

1 Cor 5:17 says “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

Theoretically, and spiritually speaking, this is true. I also I am aware of 1 John 2:2 “And he (Jesus Christ) is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.” But, of course, we know that everyone in the whole world is not Saved, right?

Here is how God showed it to me. In the Old Testament, the tabernacle had three parts: the outer court, the inner court, and the Holy of Holies where the presence of God resided with the Ark of the Covenant.

Then in the New Testament, 1 Cor 6:19 the Word says...What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? So, now, we “house” the presence of God. Our bodies are also 3-parts. 1. Body, 2. Soul, and 3. Spirit. So, that, when we are saved, the fullness of God resides in our spirit man which is instantly made holy, perfect, and sealed. Our soul and body, however, are not. But from the time we are Saved till the time we go to be with the Lord, our souls and bodies must undergo sanctification by the washing of the water of the word which is a life-long process. Eph 5—

25...even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, 27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

Here is a scriptural picture of...what is called “Deliverance”. Matthew 21–12 And Jesus went into the temple of God and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves. 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

Notice that the blind and the lame were unable to be healed until those evil inhabitants were “cast out”.

You will notice, that those “defiling” the temple—or, as Jesus called it, His Father’s House—those that sold and bought in the temple, the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves... were in the “outer court, not the inner court, nor the “holy of holies”, but the outer court — which is representative our flesh.

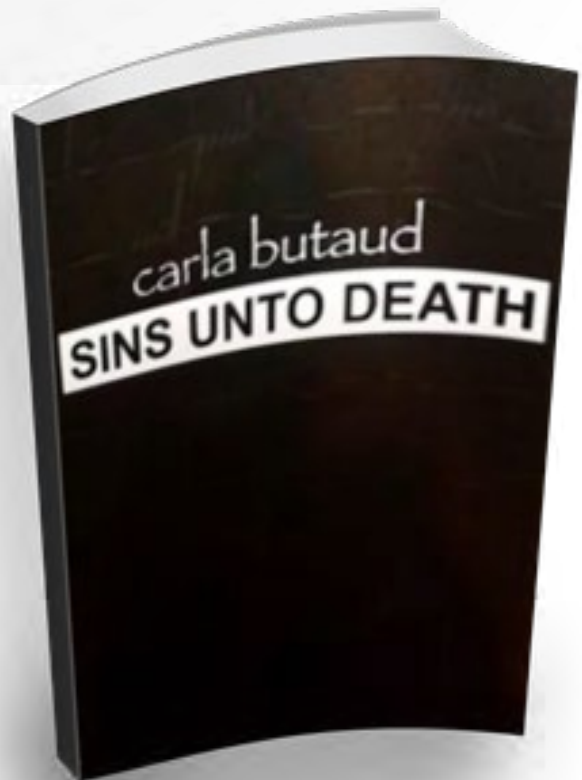

So, it is with those things which defile our “temples” or our “house”. They, the evil spirits, cannot get into our Holy of Holies where the presence of God resides, because the Word of God tells us it has been sealed with the Holy Ghost. Eph 1:13 ...in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise... However, not so with your flesh body. The sanctification of the flesh is a lifelong process. The removal of the Graveclothes is a process of getting rid of those things that defile our temple.

Why Are Believers NOT Doing the Miraculous Works That Jesus Solemnly Promised in John 14:12?

by: William Lau

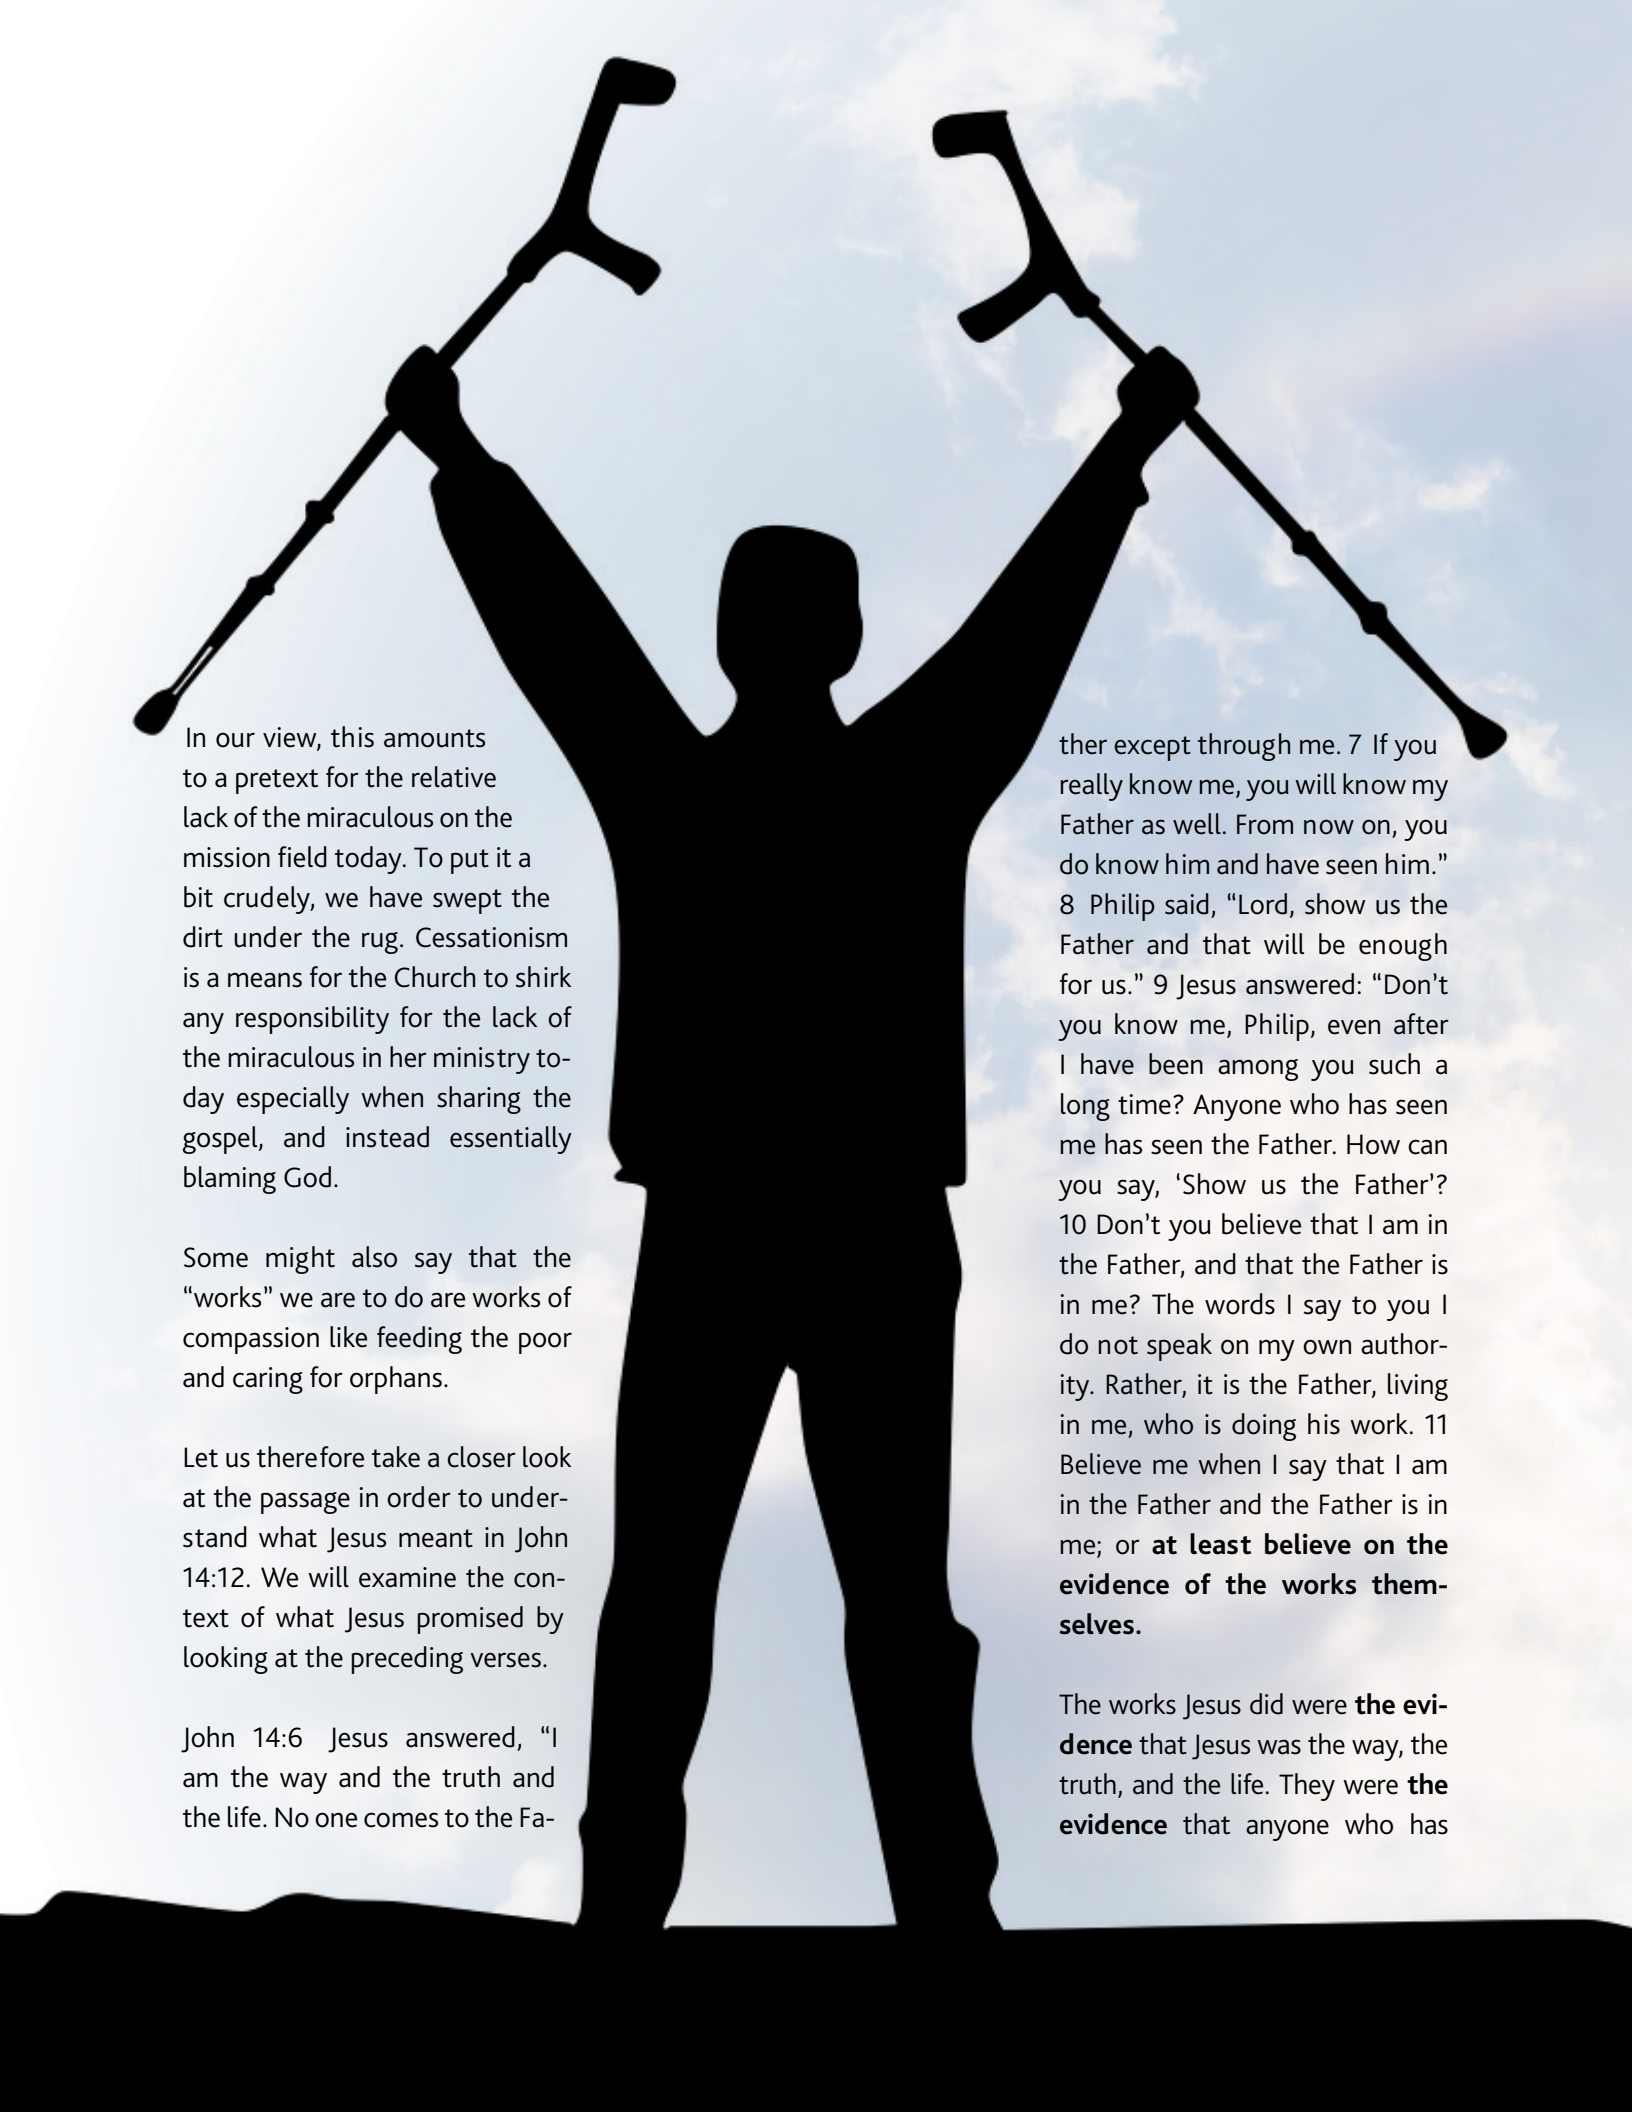

www.theelijahchallenge.org

How Jesus' glorious promise in John 14:12—that believers would do the works he did—is being fulfilled today.

John 14:12 Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.

We who believe in the authority of Scripture have had difficulty understanding this very solemn promise of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have explained it away in various ways. The most convenient is the approach of cessationism. Essentially, miracles as presented in Acts have ceased since we now have the New Testament Canon in hand. It is also taught that the miracles performed through the disciples recorded in Acts are now to be understood simply as "description" of what took place back then—and not "prescription" for what we are to do today.

A black silhouette of a person stands with their arms raised, holding two long poles that cross at the top. The background is a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The person's legs are spread apart, and their torso is straight. The poles have a slight curve and end in dark, rounded tips.

In our view, this amounts to a pretext for the relative lack of the miraculous on the mission field today. To put it a bit crudely, we have swept the dirt under the rug. Cessationism is a means for the Church to shirk any responsibility for the lack of the miraculous in her ministry today especially when sharing the gospel, and instead essentially blaming God.

Some might also say that the “works” we are to do are works of compassion like feeding the poor and caring for orphans.

Let us therefore take a closer look at the passage in order to understand what Jesus meant in John 14:12. We will examine the context of what Jesus promised by looking at the preceding verses.

John 14:6 Jesus answered, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. 7 If you really know me, you will know my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him.” 8 Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us.” 9 Jesus answered: “Don’t you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? 10 Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words I say to you I do not speak on my own authority. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. 11 Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the works themselves.

The works Jesus did were the evidence that Jesus was the way, the truth, and the life. They were the evidence that anyone who has seen him has seen the Father, and that he is in the Father and the Father is in him. The works proving the absolute truth of these extraordinary claims were clearly the miraculous works Jesus did. Jesus performed miracles that only the One True God who created the heavens and earth could do, thus proving that he was sent by Him and that he was One with Him—that he is the very Son of God.

Therefore the works that believers are to do are to be presented primarily as evidence to the world that Jesus is the Son of God—the Messiah who is the only way to the Father in heaven.

John 10:30 Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. 31 But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

Here we discover one reason why John 14:12 is not being fulfilled. In the Church today, whenever the subject of miracles is brought up—especially miraculous healing—it is nearly always in the context of sick believers in the church needing miraculous healing. It is hardly ever taught in its original context in Scripture—as compelling and irrefutable evidence in preaching the gospel to the lost that Jesus is the only way to heaven.

Neglecting the crucial original context for the purpose miraculous healing is one reason such miracles have become relatively rare in the contemporary Church.

Instructions for ministering healing to infirm believers in the New Testament are found only once—in James 5. They are almost like an afterthought. And even when is taught based on James' teaching, we believe it is taught incorrectly resulting few if any miraculous healings. That is the second reason such miracles are few and far between.

Ministry to Sick Believers in the Context of the Body of Christ according to James 5

Finally, the way in which we are taught to minister healing—whether in sharing the gospel to unbelievers or in the context of “Church”—does not follow the way in which Jesus ministered to the sick in the gospels. Instead we minister to the sick according various traditions we've been taught, whether as conservative evangelicals or charismatics.

If we want to do the works that Jesus did, we should do them in the same way that Jesus did. Most approaches today for ministering to the sick fall far short of that.

That is why Jesus' solemn promise in John 14:12 remains unfulfilled today. But when we carefully study how Jesus ministered to the sick in the gospels and then apply the principles we see there for reaching the lost, we can see his incredible promise fulfilled.

Today in The Elijah Challenge we are receiving extraordinary reports from our trained harvest workers, especially in India. They are beginning to do the works that Jesus did—thus reaping wonderful harvests for the kingdom of God. We have received reports of trained disciples doing even the “greater works.” During these Last Days when the remaining time is short yet so much work remains to be done, mission as recorded in Acts is being restored to the Church.

Extraordinary reports from our harvest workers in India

The Elijah Challenge equips harvest workers to reach resistant people groups effectively and fruitfully by training them to heal the sick miraculously as Jesus did (John 14:11-12)—as irrefutable and compelling evidence that Jesus is the Messiah and the only way to the One True God who created the heavens and the earth.

"VELIKOVSKY WROTE ABOUT PLANETARY ENCOUNTERS IN OUR PAST, TYPHON IS OUR IMMINENT FUTURE!"

Typhon:

The Reaper of Worlds

OLAF
HAGE

Typhon:

The Reaper of Worlds

by Olaf Hage, III and Tom Mack

When Noah's Ark landed on the muddy earth after long months of floating on the water, God promised Noah that He would not destroy human civilization using a flood again. However, God did not promise that He would not destroy wicked civilizations again! Instead, when evil did begin to increase, He sent His prophets to warn Israel and the rest of human civilization that time would come when God would destroy human civilization, not by using water, but with fire!

As author Olaf Hage researched this question further, he discovered that ancient history from several civilizations recounted six other end-of-the-world deluges that ended these civilizations. The famous philosopher Plato discovered that the Egyptian priests were aware of this history and had been scientifically studying it for centuries. Their research explained to the confused Greeks, what happened to cause the sudden destruction of the city-state Atlantis and other related civilizations. The Egyptian priests learned from their observations that prior to the deluges, fireballs would first impact the earth. Then, the earth would be pelted with microscopic diamond dust that would change the earth's orbit and poison all the earth's water.

The author began to realize that these observations coincided with the description of the Seven Bowl Judgments of Revelation 8. He also learned from ancient historians that the star-comet body causing all this damage was named "Typhon," while the Book of Revelation called it "Wormwood." As he continued his research, he learned that Typhon moved in an elliptical orbit around the sun that took approximately 5,125 years. When Immanuel Velikovsky proposed the idea of another deluge hitting the earth in the 1950s, most astronomers mocked his theories as "crackpot." However, when the Shoemaker-Levy Comet hit Jupiter in July of 1994, scientists changed their minds and now consider the possibility that a space object like Typhon may visit the earth again. However, as Mr. Hage began to do his own research, he found that the earth has been impacted by fireballs at an increasing rate since the beginning of the 21st century. He sees this fact along with multiple others documented in this book as evidence that Typhon will be returning soon. Typhon: The Destroyer of Worlds is not a book about the past, it is a warning of what will happen on the earth in the near future.

Romans Ch 10 v 8-10

8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach):

9 that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

10 For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

On the face of it – so simple –But is it

1st miracle—Water to Wine—Conversion needs to take place.

v10—Believes unto Righteousness.—Your belief must lead to righteousness.

What is Unrighteousness—Fornication/Idolatry (Catholic bowing to Statues) etc.

1 Cor Ch 6 v 9

Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites,

Exodus Ch 20 v 1-6

You shall not make for yourself a carved image—any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; 5 you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 6 but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Adultery –sex with another man's wife or another wife's husband.

Homosexuals, Sodomites, Catamites (Children)

Thieves – taking what does not belong to you.

Covetous – Wanting what others have.

Drunkards – Drinking to excess

Revilers –Using Abusive language

Extortioners – Someone who uses their official powers to obtain funds etc.

Which were some of you!

Gal Ch 5 v 19-21

19 Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, 21 envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as

I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Matthew Ch 7 v 21-23

"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' 23 And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!

Matthew Ch 12 v 46-50

46 While He was still talking to the multitudes, behold, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him. 47 Then one said to Him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You."

48 But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" 49 And He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

DO NOT BE DECEIVED

1 John Ch 2 v 18-19

Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come, by which we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us

4 times in Matthew Ch 24 it states 'do not be deceived'

v4—Let no-one deceive you —v5 — 'I am the Christ' v11—false Prophets v24—false Christs & False prophets

If—A small word but our destiny is hung on this small word.

Many Deceptions I believe one is regarding 'Head Covering'

1 Cor Ch 11 v 2—16 v10—Angels compare v15 with v4

Isaiah Ch 4 v 5-6

5 And the Lord will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defense.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

Cannot say My hair is my covering or my husband is?

Many Deceptions too numerous to mention, but the answer is in the Word of God.

Pre -Tribulation and Mid -Tribulation theory, a theory but not what the Bible states. I believe the tribulation is Satan's tribulation

'I believe in pre-wrath' the former will give you a false sense of security.

Toronto phenomenon –Lakeland Deception and all that came out of it.

Another Deception is once 'Born Again' – no problem with Demons.

The word Doctrine is mentioned 8 times in 1 Timothy.

Doctrine is your belief system.

1 Timothy Ch 4 v16 states 'your doctrine has the power to save YOU and those who hear You.'

THE HIDDEN TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER OF 1947

PART 1

JOHN S. TORELL

On July 4, 1947, a giant technological transfer took place when Satan and his fallen angels presented hidden technology to the American government and catapulted the human race into a colossal stage of advancement which had been hidden from mankind since the days of creation.

I know that many of my brothers and sisters in Christ will have some difficulty reading and disseminating the information presented, but I pray that you will bear with me and look upon the evidence.

After World War II, the sightings of unidentified flying objects became more and more frequent. These sightings took place around the world and were seen by all types of people, including airline pilots, military air force crews, personnel on navy ships, farmers, ranchers, people traveling on roads in rural areas, and people living in cities. The national governments insisted that these sightings were not “alien spacecraft,” but falling meteors, weather balloons, or just plain imagination. Documents now released from previous secret government files show that American presidents and military commanders were in a panic. They knew that the sightings were real and that some kinds of entities from another civilization had invaded the earth and was playing a game of “cat and mouse” with the different air forces around the world.

The name that people placed on these flying discs was “flying saucers,” and because of the propaganda and denials from government sources, anyone talking about flying saucers was considered to be more or less insane. But the truth would eventually be revealed to the general public and I want to share how it was covered up.

Our editor, Lois Amacher, shared that as a young woman living in the State of Washington, she saw a formation of flying discs maneuvering in the air. She emphatically stated that this was not merely her imagination and it certainly was not a weather balloon or falling meteor.

I can tell you that I did not initially believe the stories I heard of people claiming to have been abducted, taken onboard a craft, and exposed to some kind of medical examination by some beings that were not human. There is an emotional barrier that will stop a person from perceiving truth, even if it is documented with evidence which cannot be refuted. Why? Because we are being presented with an event that upsets grounded beliefs of what we perceive to be true.

European American Evangelistic Crusades
P.O. Box 166 Sheridan, CA 95681 • 916.944.3724 • www.eaec.org

This is what happened when I was presented with information about alien spacecraft. Emotionally, I was appalled that the science fiction books I had engrossed myself in as a teenager during the 1950's were not total fantasies, but a reality.

I remember reading about cattle having been killed and mutilated, with different body parts removed, and that the extraction of organs was done with some kind of surgical precision tool. When I heard it on the radio or on television, I just turned it off and did not want to think about it.

I have been aware of the almost "cult movement" of people who investigate UFO's and others who started UFO clubs, occult societies and UFO religions. Since I felt that people reading and investigating UFO's always seemed to end up in some kind of occult involvement, I decided to stay clear and ignore it.

It is also important for you to understand that as an engineer, I worked with computers in the 1960's, but these were not like the personal computers we have today. They were bulky mainframe computers for which we would write down our mathematical requests and hand them over to technicians, who then fed them into the computer and returned the printed solutions. In 1972 as I worked in a small engineering office, I was given a small crude computer to calculate distances and acreage for site plans and building layouts. I did not purchase my first computer until around 1993 and was not connected to the Internet until around 2001. As I looked on the internet on the subject of UFO's, there was so much material that it could take months to sift through the data. To give my readers just a sample of the crazy people out there, look at this write-up from the UFO group "Heaven's Gate." This is not a laughing matter as 39 individuals committed suicide hoping to be picked up by a UFO.

HEAVEN'S GATE CULT

Founders, Marshall H. Applewhite (1932-1997, right) and Bonnie Nettles (1927-1985) met in 1972 and soon became convinced that they were the two "end time" witnesses mentioned in Revelation chapter 11. They held gatherings in California and Oregon in 1975 that attracted initial followers. Those who attached themselves to "The Two" dropped out of society and prepared for the "transition" to a new life on a spaceship.

When the expected transition did not occur, the group settled in Texas and lived a quiet communal existence, practicing disciplines they believed would prepare them for the eventual movement to a "higher level" of existence. They had little contact with outsiders until 1994 when their expectation of the imminent transition was again heightened and they began a new round of proselytizing. They also divested themselves of most of their possessions and began a pilgrimage which culminated in California.

Marshall Applewhite & Bonnie Nettles

Settling in the San Diego area in 1996, they supported themselves by creating websites and established their own website to offer readers a gate to heaven, hence the name by which they would become known. A rumor began circulating among the New Age community in 1997 of an artificial object or spaceship that was following the recently discovered Hale-Bopp comet and was supposed to approach the earth around the time of the spring equinox. As the comet approached, the Heaven's Gate group which had shrunk to only 39 members, took poison in three waves of 15, 15, and 9 in the belief that the spaceship would arrive to take them to a better place. Prior to the event, the group members made a video explaining their individual reasons for their chosen path. (Written by John Gordon Melton, Encyclopaedia Britannica, 2004)

DELIVERANCE FOR DEMON INFESTED PEOPLE

When I arrived in Mill Valley in September of 1969 to start my seminary training, I was confronted with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. I studied the Bible until I was convinced that it was still possible today. The Holy Spirit baptism was something that Jesus told the disciples to wait for in Jerusalem. They were not to begin any sort of ministry without it because of the supernatural power it would bring. I started on my journey to learn more about it and have this experience myself.

As I was seeking and waiting for the Baptism of the Holy Spirit to happen, I was confronted with another reality – the existence of demons. Another student at the seminary who had been baptized in the Holy Spirit and had the gift of discernment, told me that the reason I had not been baptized in the Holy Spirit was that I was full of demons.

My initial reaction was rage against this man who dared to say something like this to me. But the Holy Spirit convicted me, and when I addressed the problem, evil spirits began to manifest and I realized that even though I had been saved and walking with God since 1966, there was evil in me. Once I cast out these demons, a great load left me and the torment I experienced for years lifted, and I was gloriously baptized in the Holy Spirit.

It became obvious that I needed to become educated in these two areas and my wife and I purchased all of the books we could find on these two subjects, reading them cover to cover and taking copious notes. We became aware of Devil worship, witchcraft, false religions, freemasonry, and that the spirit world is just as real as our physical world. As a minister I did not seek out people who in these activities, but God brought demon-infested people to us who were tormented and crying out for help.

From 1970 until now, we have prayed for thousands of people who were tormented by evil spirits, including pastors, elders, deacons, Sunday school teachers, married couples, single people and children. In the process, there were men and women who told us about being abducted and taken on board alien spacecraft, where they received medical checkups and were also sexually molested by non-human beings. Others told us about being molested in their own bedrooms by aliens, while the spouse was put in a deep sleep and not able to come to their defense.

At first, I dismissed these stories with the idea that these were demonic illusions that only existed in their heads. But as I read up on this information, I became convinced that it was impossible for all of these people to fabricate such stories. Each victim had no access to the other victims, but they all told the same story. Once we understood this, we were able to break the curses, cast out the demons, and help the people retake control over their minds. It was tedious work helping someone heal from the variety of traumas to which they had been exposed as many of these victims were under psychiatric care and given tranquilizers to cope with their fears and anxieties. Yet they went from being a zombie bound by Prozac and other killer drugs to entering the world of the living again and resuming a normal life.

There was one commonality amongst these victims, at the time of their affliction, they were either unsaved or backslidden. I have never encountered a strong Spirit-filled Christian being attacked by aliens and subdued by them.

MAJESTIC TWELVE

A number of years ago, a copy of a document codenamed "Majestic Twelve," was sent to the British researcher Antony C. Sutton (1925-2002) who lived and worked in California. Our ministry received his newsletter, "The Phoenix Letter," since around 1970. In a cover letter to his subscribers in June of 1988, Sutton wrote that someone had given him a copy of a briefing paper, dated September 24, 1947, which had been presented to President Harry S. Truman (1884-1972) by Secretary of Defense James V. Forrestal (1892-1949) and Dr. Vannevar Bush (1890-1974), scientific adviser to President Truman.¹

In this briefing paper President Truman was told that an alien flying disc had been recovered by the Air Force on July 4, 1947 in New Mexico and that some of the alien crew had been captured and taken alive. The military stated that the technology of the aliens was far superior to the United States and that there was no defense available should the aliens decide to launch an attack on the nation.

In June of 1988, I had little understanding of aliens and UFO's; as a result, I sat on this information until the fall when I decided to publish the document in The Dove magazine.² I wrote an introduction to the document and told the readers that I wasn't sure if it was genuine or a forgery, but to pray over it and have the Holy Spirit confirm or reject it. The confirmation came nine years later when Col. Philip J. Corso (1915-1998) of the U.S. Army released a confession of the government cover up and lies for the last 50 years.³ The same year another book came out written by Michael Hesemann and Philip Mantle entitled, "Beyond Roswell." These two publications firmly establish that the Majestic 12 document was indeed real and that the American people had been repeatedly lied to by our elected leaders and military establishment.⁴

A SHORT BIOGRAPHY OF COL. CORSO

Philip Corso was a military officer during World War II and worked with Army intelligence on General Douglas MacArthur's staff during the Korean War. He was a member of President Eisenhower's National Security Council as a Lt. Colonel for four years; head of Foreign Technology in Army Research and Development at the Pentagon in the early 1960s, where he was in charge of the Roswell files, the cache of UFO parts and information which an Army retrieval team had pulled out of the wreckage of the flying disk that crashed outside the town of Roswell in the New Mexico desert in the early morning darkness during the first week of July 1947. He retired from the Army in 1963 with nineteen medals and ribbons, served on staff as a National Security specialist to U.S. Senators James Eastland and Strom Thurmond, and subsequently worked as a consultant and contracts administrator in the private sector.

CORSO'S REVELATIONS

Colonel Corso said there were five extraterrestrials, 4-1/2 feet tall with greyish-brown skin, four-fingered hands and oversized hairless heads, found at the Roswell UFO crash site. Two of them were still alive, one of which tried to run away and was shot by nervous soldiers. The other was still alive but dying when it arrived in the back of an Army truck at Roswell Army Air Field. Corso was Post Duty Officer at Fort Riley, Kansas in 1947, the night a shipment of Roswell artifacts arrived from Fort Bliss. Colonel Corso examined the shipment, which included one of the dead extraterrestrials preserved in a thick light-blue liquid. The shipment was destined for what is now called Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio. He spoke about serving in President Eisenhower's National Security Council, and seeing the memos about the Roswell incident and the "goods" retrieved from it.

Colonel Corso divulges how he spearheaded the Army's secret reverse-engineering project that "seeded" extraterrestrial technology at American corporations such as IBM, Hughes Aircraft, Bell Labs, and Dow Corning – all without their knowledge. He describes the devices found aboard the Roswell craft, and how they became the precursors for today's integrated circuit chips, fiber optics, lasers, night-vision equipment, super-tenacity fibers (i.e. Kevlar), and classified discoveries, such as psychotronic devices that can translate human thoughts into signals to control machinery, aircraft technology, and particle-beam devices. He also discussed the role that extraterrestrial technology played in shaping geopolitical policy and events. How it helped the United States surpass the Russians in space, spurred elaborate Army initiatives such as SDI (Star Wars Projects), Project Horizon (to place a military base on the Moon), HAARP; and ultimately brought about the end of the Cold War.

Colonel Corso also said that captured UFO's were/are kept at Norton, Edwards and Nellis (Area 51) Air Force Bases. He said a UFO Working Group was set up by President Truman in September of 1947, a group some call MJ-12, and has functioned ever since. In the 1950's, two crude prototypes of antigravity craft were constructed, powered by crude human nuclear fission generators which were inefficient and leaked radiation. He says that the Star Wars program was always primarily to prepare for war against the extraterrestrials in case of invasion.

Corso suffered a massive heart attack in early June of 1998, but made a remarkable recovery. He was at home on July 16th and feeling fine when he apparently suffered a second heart attack. According to a family source, he died at or enroute to a hospital in Palm Beach, Florida.

NOTE BY JOHN S. TORELL

Philip Corso published his book in July of 1997 and died a year later. Many such persons who have worked in intelligence services, sensitive military positions, or held political offices are assassinated by FBI, CIA, Mossad or KGB agents. If a suicide cannot be arranged through a medical kill like heart attack, stroke or cancer, they will often resort to shooting, drowning or poisoning. I believe that Col. Corso was given some kind of chemical agent that induced a heart attack. He did not reveal all that he knew in his book. His son, Philip Corso Jr., gave the following statement the day he died:

"He really wanted to stay. The last three weeks since the first heart attack have been very productive. I knew he had more to say, and he told me a great deal about the Roswell UFO incident. Unpublished manuscripts and other UFO related information left by Col. Corso will be protected and made available in due course to researchers and the public. This is what my father lived for."

There has been no further information released by the Corso family as of December 2004. Will there be a release like they promised?

I have been sitting on the information shared thus far for some time and the Holy Spirit has given me permission to release what I now know about this subject to the Christian community. Before I go any further into the alien program, I want to examine the Book of Enoch first.

THE BOOK OF ENOCH

It is clear to me that aliens are connected with the Devil. They are not sent by God. In my article entitled, "As the Days of Noah," I laid out a short teaching on what really took place before Noah's flood and how fallen angels infiltrated the earth. They transferred technology and became sexually involved with women, creating a hybrid race that was half-human/half-demon.⁵

ENOCH SPOKE ABOUT FALLEN ANGELS

In Enoch, Book 1, chapter 6, the following details are provided about the fallen angels that took human form and produced hybrid children with human women:

The leader of this group of Satanic angels is Semyaz, and his group of fallen angels consisted of 200. When this group of fallen angels saw how beautiful were the women born on earth, they decided to take some of these women as wives and produce children by them.

My personal understanding is that this group of 200 angels prior to the war in heaven had been working with God in the creation of human beings. They knew how the human body was engineered and used this knowledge for their own purposes. They were able to create what was needed to have some kind of a physical body, through which they could have sexual intercourse with human women.

Semyaz did not trust the fallen angels under his command. He made them swear an oath with a curse, which bound them altogether before they started this project.

I believe that this type of oath with a curse is the same kind of oath that is practiced by Satanists, witches, Baal worshipers, Freemasons, Mormons etc. This should not come as a surprise to Christians since Paul tells us that demons do in fact seduce and teach doctrine.

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils..." (1 Timothy 4:1)

They descended upon mount Hermon (9,101 ft. above sea level) and located in what is today Syria. This mountain became their headquarters.

Now I understand where the Baal worship came from. After the flood, demons seduced people to idol worship and Mount Hermon became a center in the Middle East, where altars were built and human sacrifices were carried out. Compare this with the religion of the Greek people, who claimed that the gods lived on mount Olympus, led by Zeus, who was known for his enormous sexual appetite. In Rome he was known as "Jupiter" and the Vikings called him "Thor." The Aztec empire in central Mexico worshiped a cluster of demon gods, with high pyramid temples; humans were cut open at the top and their still throbbing hearts were sacrificed to the sun god. The Olympic Games are in reality a revival of the old Zeus worship as the Olympic fire is lit on top of mount Olympus by female priests, carried to the game location by torch, and the Olympic altar is lit prior to the start of the games. There are songs and dances at the opening and closing ceremonies in honor of the Greek gods. Is it a coincidence that the Roman emperor Theodosius abolished the games in 393 A.D. because of their ties to demon worship? Was it a coincidence that the games were reinstated in 1894?

The 200 fallen angels were divided into groups of ten, each group having a leader. Enoch gives the names of each of these sub leaders. Each one of the 200 fallen angels took a woman as a wife, and made them pregnant.

The children born to these women grew to an amazing height of 300 cubits (450 ft.)! They consumed so much food that humanity hated them since they were forced to feed these giants. This hybrid race turned their wrath upon mankind and began to kill and eat humans. They also ate birds, fish, animals, reptiles, and drank blood.

One of the fallen angels taught technology to mankind. He taught them how to mine ore, melt it, and extract different metals. He then taught them how to fashion the metals into swords, knives, shields and breastplates.

Those who became initiated into this demon religion were educated in the making of bracelets, decorations (shadowing of the eye); making medication (pharmakia), ornamentation, all kind of precious stones, and all coloring tinctures and alchemy.

Other fallen angels taught humanity how to do incantations and the cutting of roots, how to resolve incantations, astrology, and how to deceive people.

These fallen angels educated the people not only in technology, which was used to make war, but also in occult practices, releasing more demon power on the earth.

This is why the prophet Elijah became petrified with fear right after he experienced a great victory on Mount Carmel. (1Kings 18:22-46) When Jezebel sent a death threat to Eliajah, she did not send it as the queen, but the high priestess of Baal.

“And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow about this time. And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.” (1 Kings 19:1-3)

Jezebel was a woman, who from her childhood had been initiated into Satanic worship:

“And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him. And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him. And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.” (1 Kings 16:30-32)

When Jehu came to confront Jezebel, she went into her chambers and painted herself as a Baal priestess, put on head gear and went to the window, hoping to scare Jehu into submission. But Jehu was not intimidated and had her killed on the spot. Now you know why Jezebel put on her makeup before she went to the window.

“And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?

And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter. And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. Wherefore they came again, and told him.

And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel: And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel." (2 Kings 9:30-37)

Is it a coincidence that when the great revivals and awakenings began with the Wesley brothers in 18th century, followed by Jonathan Edwards, George Whitefield, Charles Finney in the 19th century, and the Pentecostal revival in the early 20th century, the Holy Spirit spoke through all these men and women that it was a sin for women to wear makeup? God's Word is true, holy and powerful and we really should take heed to what God said:

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children." (Hosea 4:6)

The fallen angels also introduced writing and the use of ink and paper.

This was used to record false doctrine and preserve the incantations and ceremonies taught by the fallen angels.

The murder of babies was shown to women, where the child was murdered in the womb and then lifelessly extracted.

It is devastating to realize that killing babies in the womb is as old as the beginning of mankind. No wonder the feminist movement is so militant! These women are being driven by powerful demonic princes who have been killing babies for the last 8,000 years. With the current technology, their lust for killing babies has now gone into the millions per year worldwide.

The fallen angels also introduced flagellation, which today is known as "kinky sex" or "sado-masochism," or "S&M," where sexual pleasure is derived from being tied up, beaten, and dominated in some form or other by the other sexual partner.

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED AT ROSWELL?

The city of Roswell is the county seat of Chaves County and was founded in 1871 by Van C. Smith, who named it after his father. The city is located in the southeast portion of New Mexico. In 1941, the U.S. Army Air Force – the Air Force of today did not come into existence as an independent organization until July 26, 1947 – established Roswell Army Air Field (RAAF), which later was changed to Walker Air Force Base, and was located just outside the city.

The 509th bomber group was stationed there. In 1945, members from this unit dropped atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and in 1947, they were turned into the first Strategic Air Command (SAC) unit with the most modern military aircraft. Because of the atomic ordinance, the air base in Roswell was the most important base for the Army Air Force.

In 1947 this area of New Mexico was bristling with military activity, including top secret research centers. Alamogordo is 117 miles southwest of Roswell, and the county seat of Otero County. Almost a third of this county was under the control of the military. To the north was White Sands Missile Range, some 166 miles west of Roswell, and to the south of Alamogordo was Holloman Army Air Field, which was 126 miles southwest of Roswell. Fort Bliss Military Reservation extended some 50 miles into Texas. Sandwiched in between White Sands Missile

Range and Fort Bliss Military Reservation is White Sands Guided Missile Base, where test launches of German V2 rockets had been taking place since 1945.⁶

Almost due north Alamogordo was a huge military defense laboratory, Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, later renamed Los Alamos National Laboratory (228 miles northwest of Roswell) covering a 77 square mile area, with more than 300 buildings. It was at this laboratory that the military scientists and engineers designed and built the first atomic bomb (codename: Manhattan Project), which was detonated in an area called “Trinity Site,” 60 miles northwest of the Holloman Army Air Base. A hydrogen bomb was also designed at this laboratory.

PERSONNEL

Thousands of the brightest American scientists, augmented with German rocket scientists and other highly trained German scientists and engineers who just two years prior had been working for the Nazi regime resided on these military installations in New Mexico. Included in this group of Germans were mathematicians, chemists and engineers trained in designing new alloys to be used in rocket engines. Since the Germans had previously encountered “aliens” and there had been a technology transfer of UFO design before and during World War II, these same Germans were also in New Mexico aiding the buildup of new weapon systems for the United States. In our previous newsletter, I documented how the occult had been merged with science in Nazi Germany, and this practice continued on the military installations in New Mexico.⁷

DEFENSES

The military installations in New Mexico were protected by a number of air bases and radar system which continually scanned the skies. The Army maintained a large force in the area, spread out over the different military installations. Security was high and the housing area at Los Alamos Laboratory was closed to the civilian population; only people working on the bases or the laboratory and their families could enter the housing area. The army air base at Roswell became known as the Army’s 509th airfield and it had a special attachment of the Army’s Intelligence Unit to decipher the frequent flyovers of UFO’s.⁸ Despite public denial that UFO’s existed, the military was well aware of their existence and considered them a threat to national security.

THE CRASH

For several days, beginning on July 1, UFO’s had been flying over the secret military installations in New Mexico and the American military command came to the conclusion that whomever was sending these crafts, did not have friendly intentions. These UFO’s showed up on the radar screens on all the bases in New Mexico and fighters were scrambled, but when they showed up, the unknown craft just flew away at speeds which could not be matched by combat aircraft.

The Pentagon responded by sending out more personnel from the Army Counterintelligence (CIC), which at the time was a highly secret department of the U.S. Army. They arrived dressed in civilian clothing and spread out to determine if foreign units or agents had landed on the ground and were trying to penetrate the most secret military bases existing at that time. Roswell was the only operating nuclear bomber base at this time.

During the evening of July 4th, the different radar installations around Roswell saw a UFO flying at speeds over 1,000 miles per hour. It was almost as if this craft was teasing the radar operators as they followed its maneuvering on radar. Suddenly the craft arched to the lower left hand quadrant of the radar screens, then exploded with a brilliant white light and disappeared. There was a consensus among the radar operators and the intelligence officers from the CIC that the craft must had crashed out in the desert. The officer in charge of the CIC detachment immediately made the decision to locate and retrieve the UFO before any locals could announce that an alien space ship had crashed.

⁸ Roswell Army Airfield was opened in 1941. The base was renamed Walker Air Force Base in 1948 and shut down in 1967.

The military did not know that hundreds of people living in and around Roswell had seen the UFO flying in the air, the explosion and the craft falling to the ground. It was not long before Sheriff George Wilcox of Chavez County began to receive calls about some kind of aircraft that had crashed in the desert. Since no one could give him a location, he refused to send out a fire truck or police unit. There was a group of archeologists from Texas Technical University who were out in the area and had seen the UFO fly over them and crash. It did not take long for them to find the location and radio it in as 37 miles northwest of Roswell. It was the military unit from the 509th that reached the crash site before the police and fire units from Roswell. The group from Texas Technical University was threatened and sent away and told not to speak about what they had seen.

As military police secured the area and set up a perimeter, it did not take long before generators and a string of flood lights lit up the crash area. According to military personnel present, the craft looked like nothing they had seen before. It had the form of a flying wing with two tail top fins. The craft seemed to be intact, except a long ripped seam on the side. The front of the craft was buried in the ground. The crew was humanoid; three were dead, one tried to escape and was fatally shot, while the injured fifth one was loaded on a stretcher and taken back to the base at Roswell.

On a side note, I would describe these beings as some kind of humanoids, created from some kind of living cells, and through genetic engineering, formed to a desired shape of their superiors. From a biblical viewpoint, I would classify these beings as creatures from the satanic kingdom.

As soon as the fire truck and police cruiser arrived on the scene, the CIC officer in charge, Major Jesse Marcel, ordered the MP's to prevent the fire truck and police officers from entering the area.⁹ Just like the archeologist's, they were told to leave with a strong warning that they had seen nothing; there had been no UFO crash. Once the craft had been loaded on a flatbed truck, all the debris were picked up and the ground was swept clean and brushed so there was no trace of a crash.

THE COVER UP

Some of the civilians working at the 509th air base saw the craft as it was brought onto the base and the aliens on stretchers as they were carried into the base hospital. Angry CIC officers had them held by MP's and threatened to kill them and their families if they ever spoke about what they had seen.

In the morning, the base commander, Col. William Blanchard authorized a press release that a "flying saucer" had crashed and been retrieved. This was picked up by the news services, broadcast on the radio, and printed by newspapers in the U.S. and abroad.

Jesse Marcel

William Blanchard

Roger Ramey

Later in the day, General Roger Ramey of the 8th Army Air Force Headquarters in Texas ordered ⁹ Jesse Marcel lived off base with his family in Roswell and was known to the community.

Major Jesse Marcel to retract the flying saucer story. He was ordered to tell the journalists that he had made a mistake and had realized that the debris had actually come from a weather balloon. Knowing that he was lying on a grand scale, he showed the press corps some debris from an old weather balloon. This American army officer who took an oath to uphold the Constitution and defend the nation was forced to become a boldfaced liar for political reasons. This would haunt him for the rest of his life, and before he died in 1986, he repeatedly made public statements that he had indeed retrieved an alien craft.

For the next few weeks after the crash, CIC teams fanned out into Roswell and the surrounding areas to subdue the people into silence. They accomplished this with threats of violence, physical intimidation and one murder. The local people feared for their lives and it would take years before some of them started to talk about what they had seen.

Officers from the Sheriff's department and Roswell Police Department were told that due to "National Security," they could not reveal what they had seen and heard, and that they were to deny the crash ever happened. Local radio stations with interviews from eyewitnesses were told that these recordings could never be broadcast.

The debris retrieved from the crash site was shipped to the headquarters of the 8th Army Air Force at Fort Bliss, Texas, where it was sorted and cataloged. The UFO with the bodies of the dead aliens preserved in formaldehyde, along with the rest of the debris were loaded on army trucks and taken to Fort Riley in Kansas, and then Air Material Command at Wright Airfield.

NOTE:

Wright-Patterson Army Air Base located outside Dayton, Ohio became a center for alien technology for the Air Force. The Air Force Institute of Technology was created and housed on this base the same year. Some of the personnel who have been stationed at this base indicated that secret projects are being worked on at the base and that aliens have been kept at the base from time to time.

Sometime after the crash in Roswell, contact was established between the aliens and American military personnel, and some kind of agreement was reached between the superiors of the aliens and the U.S. government.

Is it a coincidence that the government under President Clinton sponsored a peace conference for the warring parties in the Balkan conflict in November 1995 and that the belligerent delegates were taken to Wright-Patterson air base? In just a short time the delegates from Serbia, Bosnia and other provinces of the former Yugoslavia agreed to a peace agreement and when they left the base they seemed shaken. What were they shown and who did they meet in these secret meetings?

A DIFFERENT ACCOUNT OF THE CRASH

The version of the crash I have described to you is the one told by Colonel Philip Corso, who saw the wreckage for himself at Fort Riley, where he was stationed at that time. However in the book "Beyond Roswell," the description of the crash is dated to July 7, 1947, indicating there might have been two different crashes, with different debris fields. Nevertheless, the same people involved in the discovery and cover-up are listed in both books, which were published in 1997. It is obvious that the different authors worked independently of each other, and by having two different sources, details that one book leaves out is found in the other. Jesse A. Marcel Jr., a medical doctor and son of Major Jesse Marcel, wrote an introduction in the book "Beyond Roswell," where he recounted his encounter as an eleven year old boy and what his father later told him. Both books agree on this point, an alien flying disc had been recovered, including a crew of five. Four humanoids died, but one lived and was taken by the military to the air base of the 509th.

THE PRESIDENT IS INFORMED

According to official records on July 7, 1947, at 1.55 P.M. EST, there was a meeting at the Pentagon between General Curtis LeMay, the vice-chief of staff of the Air Force for Research and Development and General Hoyt Vandenberg, Chief of Staff and Vice-Commander of the Army Air Force. The subject of the meeting was "Flying Saucers." At the same time General Nathan Twining, Commanding General of the Air Technical Intelligence Corps (ATIC) at Wright Field, cancelled his scheduled departure to the West Coast on July 10th and flew unannounced to the Kirtland Air Base at Albuquerque, New Mexico. From here he flew to Alamogordo Field and then back to Kirtland again. On July 16th he flew into RAAF outside Roswell and then to Wright Field.

On July 9th an aircraft left RAAF with alien bodies and flew to Andrews Air Field outside Washington D.C. The same day General Leslie Groves, commander of the Weapons Development Project at Los Alamos and General Robert Montague, commander of the Remote-Controlled Rockets School of the U.S. Army at Fort Bliss, flew unannounced to the U.S. Capitol where they were called in as experts for the team that was going to brief President Truman.

It is important to understand Harry Truman was not elected president. He was Vice President under Franklin D. Roosevelt (1882-1945), and became president on April 12, 1945. He was never his own man but was controlled and operated by Freemasonic leaders.

The official biography of Truman tells us that he was born in Lamar, Missouri and that his father was a mule trader and farmer. After graduating high school in 1901 from Independence, Missouri, he went to work as a bank clerk in Kansas City. In 1906 he moved back to the family farm and took over after the death of his father in 1914. Prior to this, he served two tours in the National Guard from 1905-1911. When the United States entered World War I, in 1917, he volunteered to join the army at age 32 and was sent to France where he served as a captain of a field artillery unit which saw heavy combat. Returning to the U.S. he joined the reserves and rose to the rank of colonel. In 1919, he married his childhood sweetheart, Elisabeth Wallace. He then went into business with an army buddy and opened a haberdashery store which failed in a recession of the early 1920's.

At that time, another army friend introduced him to Thomas Pendergast (1872-1945), the democratic political boss of Kansas City, who ran a dirty political machine which brought all kinds of vice and crime to the city. Pendergast not only dominated Kansas City for more than 25 years, but he had great influence in the national Democratic Conventions. He was later arrested for tax evasion; this came in the form of bribes and failing to report them as income. Pendergast was sentenced to prison in May of 1939 and served 366 days in a federal prison.

Harry Truman

Thomas Pendergast

It was Thomas Pendergast who accepted the young Truman in 1922 and successfully ran him for a county judge seat. When his first term was up four years later, he ran a second time and won. In 1934 Truman was out of a job because he could only serve two terms and Pendergast (like a boxing promoter) decided to run him for a senate seat in Missouri. Since this was a democratic state, Truman won by a majority of 40,000 votes.

When Harry Truman arrived and took his office as a senator, he was frowned upon by other senators, who considered him to be a puppet of Pendergast and took some time to overcome this stigma. He won a second term as senator in 1940, and in 1944, he was asked to be vice president for Franklin Roosevelt, who was running for a third term.

The book "Architects of Deception" chronicles freemasonry and provides more information about Harry Truman. It is written by an Estonian/Swedish investigative writer named Juri Linna. Truman's deep involvement in the occult was going to have a major impact regarding the crisis with alien spacecraft and the command center behind these flying discs.

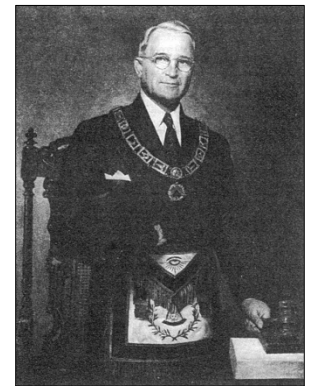

Harry Truman became inducted on February 9, 1909 (at age 25) as an "Apprentice" (first degree in Masonry) in the 450th Masonic Lodge Belton in Fulton, Missouri. By March 18, 1909, he had advanced to the degree of Master (also known as third degree in the Blue Lodge). In 1911, he became a member in the 615th lodge Grandview. The same year he also became a member of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. January 1, 1912, he joined another Masonic Lodge, called "Perfection." March 29, 1917, he became a member of the Knights of Kadosh (30th degree in the Scottish Rite) just eight days before the United States declared war on Germany on April 6, 1917.

On March 31, 1919, he had advanced to the 32nd degree in the Scottish Rite, known as "The Master of the Royal Secret." Truman was not satisfied with belonging to only one branch in the masonic system; in 1919, he joined the Oriental Charter 102 in the York Rite, which has 13 degrees. In December 1919 he became a member of the "12th Shekina Council." In the month of June 1928 he became a member of Knights Templar Lodge number 17 (Palestinian Command). During the years of 1925 through 1930 he was a member in the Grand Lodge in Missouri. Later he was elected Vice Grandmaster and in 1940 he became the Grandmaster of this lodge. In 1941, he was appointed honorary master of symbolic Freemasonry.¹⁰

Franklin Roosevelt

Harry Truman

Harry Truman was a serious student of the occult to advance through the different branches of the Masonic labyrinth. He rejected Jesus Christ as the Son of God and became a devoted Luciferian. As President of the United States, he was promoted to the 33rd degree of the Scottish Rite on October 19, 1945. On February 22, 1946, Truman traveled to Alexandria, Virginia and the United Lodges headquarters named George Washington

¹⁰ Architects of Deception, Juri Lina, 2004, pp.212-213

Memorial Lodge where he took an oath stating that he would govern the United States according to the principles of freemasonry.

At a speech in 1948 at the Masonic Lodge number 694 in Beach Grove, Truman said:

“My activity as a statesman is built upon the principles of freemasonry. I believe that these principles must be spread over the whole world, and upon these principles must all civilization be built upon.”¹¹

Truman ordered the atomic bombs to be dropped on Japan. Fifty nine years later, documents from both Japan and the United States dating back to 1945 state that Japan was ready to surrender and several attempts had been made to make a deal which Truman rejected. Instead Hiroshima and Nagasaki were selected even though they had no military significance. Previously on March 10, 1945, some 300 B-29 bombers had targeted Tokyo and dropped 1,700 tons of napalm and other incendiary bombs. The firestorm that broke out in the city killed 100,000 Japanese civilians, and with continued daily bombings over Japan, the nation’s military resistance was broken.

On August 6, 1945, an atomic bomb was dropped over Hiroshima, killing 70,000 to 80,000 persons. Three days later a second atomic bomb was dropped over Nagasaki, killing 35,000 to 40,000 persons. Japan is mostly Buddhist, and knowing Truman’s background as a Luciferian, was it a coincidence that the two strongest Christian centers in Japan were targeted?

On July 9, 1947, between 10:30 and 11:00 A.M., President Truman received a visit from Senator Carl Hatch of New Mexico. While these two men were meeting, Lt. General James Doolittle (1896-1993) and the Vice Commander of the Army Air Force, General Hoyt S. Vandenberg were in conference with Army Air Force Secretary Stuart Symington (1901-1988), in a Pentagon office. At 10:48 A.M. while Hatch was still at the White House, General Vandenberg called President Truman. A few minutes later the group in Pentagon went to the office of the Chief of Staff of the Army, General Dwight D. Eisenhower. This was followed by a series of meeting at the top level in the Pentagon, culminating with a meeting of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. All these meetings are recorded in the U.S. National Archives, but the subject discussed has been stricken from the records.

On July 10th there were more high level meetings and FBI director J. Edgar Hoover (1895-1972) was briefed on the alien crisis. On July 26, 1947, President Truman signed a sweeping change in the nation’s structure called “The National Security Act.”¹² By this time, President Truman, Secretary of Defense James Forrestal and General Eisenhower had seen the alien bodies brought to Washington D.C.

WHERE IS THAT IN THE BIBLE?

by: Pastor Caspar McCloud
www.theupperroomfellowship.org

One thing I have come to greatly appreciate about getting to minister along side some of my erudite friends like Pastor Carl Gallups and his son Pastor Brandon Gallups (my co host for Spiritual Encounters) over the years is how they will both often say, "please show me where that is in the Bible?", especially after someone brings forth some strange unexplainable and bizarre account?

Recently Pastor Brandon sent me a story of a mother who claims her security camera captured images of her deceased son. There is nothing new under the sun, (Ecclesiastes 1:9-10) so straightway I am recalling photographs presented in times past where people have claimed to have photographed Elvis Presley's ghost and other such celebrities, along with other strange unexplainable images of like manner.

One of the earliest accounts of "Spirit photography", was probably by the work of photographer Mr. William H. Mumler back in the 1860's. Mr. Mumler discovered quite by accident the technique of double exposure. Realising there was a market for such mistakes (cha ching) he wasted no time establishing himself as a medium for a hefty fee and started altering the negatives by adding in ghostly images of lost loved ones. Until one day he went too far and exposed himself as a charlatan after it was discovered he put identifiable living Boston residents in the photos as spirits.

There have been many variations played on this theme ever since. In fact Photoshop technologies have now advance to such a degree experts are unable to identify the real from the manipulated photographs in a court of law.

Nevertheless, there are always those exceptions that defy logic. That said the recent article I was sent says, "A mother who lost her son two years ago due to an accidental drug overdose believes his apparition appeared on her security camera just to let her know he was "happy" in the next world. The mother of the deceased young gentlemen is one

Ms. Jennifer Hodge of Atlanta, Georgia. Ms. Hodge also says she believes strongly in God and has indicated this was God showing her that her son was happy in Heaven. Keeping in mind most people if asked today believe they and their loved ones shall all go to heaven regardless if they met the requirements established by the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, Messiah Yeshua. For example: John 14:15, "If ye love me, keep my commandments.

John 14:6,

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

Romans 10:9,

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."

Indeed this seems an interesting account as described by Ms. Hodge and I believe she is sincere in her believing her deceased son has returned to give her and her daughter photographic "proof", that he is well and happy in the next dimensional world.

Ms. Hodge said she was in bed watching television with her 21-year-old daughter Lauren when she received an alert from her Nest camera, which is triggered by movement and noise, that a "person" has been "spotted" in the entryway of their home last week. All alone in the house, the mother and her daughter ran to the kitchen, even though they were terrified. However, no one was there, and there was no sign of any sort of noticeable break-in. Very spooky. The Hodge's then examined the image from the security camera and quite to their utter astonishment it appeared to look just like Ms. Hodge's late son, Robbie who passed away in 2016 at the age of 23 years old. Ms. Hodge and her daughter apparently believe the cause of Robbie's death at the time was from taking an accidental overdose of fake Xanax."

Prior to Robbie's death, Ms. Hodge had set up a charity with him to try and help people battling addictions. Robbie himself struggled with addictions like use of heroin.

Ms. Hodge posted on her face book page these strange images which look like her son in a double exposure reminiscent of work of Mr. Mumler from the 1860's.

Ms. Hodge Face Book account said: "That brings me some comfort, but I still just think it's weird. I'm in awe — why did this happen to me? I haven't seen anything since, and I had never seen a ghost before. Does it look like Robbie? Yes. I would love to see anybody else's camera where people might look transparent. This is just weird."

We read the account in Luke 16:19-31 where the rich man dies, and ends up in a place of torment. The rich man cries out in his anguished torment as he can see across a great gulf into a place of paradise asking for only a drop of water to cool his tongue. The rich man sees the poor man that he mistreated whilst they were both alive on earth named Lazarus who is enjoying himself and spending time with father Abraham. The rich man wants to send a warning back to his five brothers that they repent and not end up where he is spending eternity in endless torment.

Abraham tells the rich man, that his brothers have Moses and the prophets; and they can hear the truth from them. The rich man pleads, if only someone would come back from the dead they would believe in God almighty and repent. Nevertheless, father Abraham explains to him that if they won't listen and obey the law of Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though someone comes back from the dead to warn them.

Interestingly, there is an account of the testimony of Pastor Daniel Ekechukwu in Africa who died from injuries sustained from a motorcar accident the 30th November 2001 and through the prayers of several Christians return back to life several days later after doctors signed his death certificate and a mortician had begun the embalming procedure. I happen to personally know several people involved in this extraordinary account. Pastor Ekechukwu claims the Lord had granted the rich man's request to send a final warning to this generation to repent before its too late by sending him back into this world. Pastor Ekechukwu claims he was taken by angels to gates of hell where he was informed he would spend eternity because he had a fight with his wife and refused to forgive her even after she repented and asked his forgiveness. The angel of the Lord showed Pastor Ekechukwu Matthew 18 pointing out verse 35, "So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses."

There is a documentary of this testimony from Christ For All Nations.

I have also spent time with David Servant back in 2002 after this account happened where we were both speaking at a conference together in Texas, not long after I had personally experienced my own miracle healing from a NDE.

David also helped free some children in the Middle East from slave traders, and I know he is a man of great integrity.

I pray that I have helped establish here that I certainly believe the Word of God from cover to cover and that I can also testify to experiencing numerous supernatural healings and miracles happening by administering the Word of God in the almighty name of Jesus/Yeshua, so let us address this issue of seeing ghost's.

It appears to me after many years of biblical study and research this sort of account we read of with Ms. Jennifer Hodge may most likely be revealing what is called a familiar spirit. They seem to be assigned to families in a generational way perhaps going all the way back to Adam, until someone repents for engaging in occultism before the Lord's throne of mercy, grace and love to cancel their assignment by the blood of Jesus/Yeshua.

A familiar spirit would certainly know secrets no one else would be likely to know. There are no walls in the spirit world and they are watching you, learning your ways and habits, how you comb your hair and what you like to eat etc. Here is a few Scriptures from our Holy Guide Book to the Supernatural that may help shed some light onto this darkness.

By the way I also think it was clearly a familiar spirit that appeared to Saul and took him away from the truth. King Saul as we study was entertaining a spirit of fear which God did not give him and is opposite faith. Without faith it is Impossible to please the Lord.

Seeing how the Philistine army had gathered round Saul to attack Israel, with Saul unsure of what to do moans, "If only Samuel were here, he would tell me what to do." Knowing the prophet Samuel had died a few years earlier. Saul makes a fatal mistake here and goes against what the Holy Scripture warns us all about. He tells his servant to go seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. (1 Samuel 28:7-25) Papa God clearly commanded His people never to consult a witch or any kind of medium but King Saul like many professing believers who do not study to show themselves approved had little regard for the Lord God Almighty implicit instructions.

We read that King Saul disguised himself and went to see that witch/physic/medium, and tells her to “Bring me up Samuel.” This witch/physic/medium went through her spells and enchantments until an apparition claiming to be Samuel the prophet appeared to her and so she gives the king an utterly hopeless message.

Her familiar spirit now has his undivided attention as it is able to predict and help set up that Saul and his three sons would die in battle the very next day. Instead of turning to the Lord for help and guidance and repenting the next day Saul’s sons were slain by the Philistines, and afterward the wounded and discouraged king falls on his own sword trying commit suicide.

Only Saul suffers on until someone came along who he convinces to finish him off and sadly that person ends up being slain by David for finishing Saul off. (See 1 Samuel 31). Two wrongs won’t make things right.

So the question of who spoke to Saul through the witch of Endor, a resurrected prophet of the Lord, or a demon in disguise becomes rather clear. Bottom line Samuel did not appear to Saul, rather a familiar spirit impersonating him probably did.

In this ghost story I suspect Ms. Jennifer Hodge and her daughter were not actually lead closer to the Lord Jesus/Yeshua from this experience but it appears to me that the enemy has come to mislead her and many people who perish from lack of knowledge of the Word of God.

Least anyone not understand the devil and his demons intentions are to kill, steal and destroy.

Leviticus 19:31 – Regard not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I [am] the LORD your God.

Leviticus 20:27 – A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood [shall be] upon them.

Leviticus 20:6 – And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

Isaiah 8:19 – And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

Isaiah 19:3 – And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

2 Chronicles 33:6 – And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

2 Kings 23:24 – Moreover the [workers with] familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

2 Kings 21:6 – And he made his son pass through the fire, and observed times, and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke [him] to anger.

Deuteronomy 18:10 – There shall not be found among you [any one] that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, [or] that useth divination, [or] an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

Galatians 5:20 – Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

Acts 16:16-18 – And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

The question remains, can we see into the spiritual realm? Where is that in the Bible? Let me leave you with this blessed hope.

2 Kings 6:17, "And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.¹⁸ And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.¹⁹ And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

²⁰ And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria."

Fight back overcomers, trust Papa God for every detail and stay in faith! Because "All", things are possible with God! I pray the Lord's supernatural peace, healing, provision and protection cover you always with oceans of agape love in the almighty name of Jesus/Yeshua!

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE DECEIVED!

by: Loren Due PhD, DMin

www.lorendue.com

Why not – because the Word of God gives many examples of deception that if you study enough your sensitivity to deceptive behavior is heightened. The reason for this article now is that the use of deception by the enemy is at an all-time high I believe. Each person must be extremely careful when entering into any type of relationship with so many people uncertain about who they are. You need to know who you are and the person(s) you are entering relationship with really knows self. The older generations I believe understand that God made them in His likeness and image. Each one is a male or female; because society says you can be born in, the wrong body does not change God's creation.

What we know is that the scripture informs us that Adam and Eve were born perfect, but when sin entered in by the deception of the snake that was the first instance of deception in the Bible. You have to know that the first bit of deception included a simple lie. Just think of all the lying that goes on in our society and the church today. Yes, I said the church. What I mean by that is the many loving Christians tell little white lies and think nothing of it. The serpent said to Eve in Genesis 3:4 (KJV) ⁴ And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: The serpent said the opposite of what God said – you shall surely die.

The woman believed the serpent over God – why! The scripture tells us that the serpent was more subtle than any other beast of the field. We must understand that the woman did not know she was any different than, the beast of the field. The serpent at that time was walking around like a human being. Think about it, the woman had the encounter with the serpent not Adam. The serpent tells the lie to the woman and not the man who received the original command not to eat of the fruit of the tree of life.

So many deceived by the sleight of hand by saying the lie to the person who did not receive the original message. Be very careful when you enter the crossfire. Eve did not know that she was had until the Lord came walking in the garden in the cool of the day and ask Adam – where are you?

In Genesis, we find Abraham using deception twice for fear of his life. A prophet who did not know the Lord would cover him without him telling a lie. He said this in Genesis 12:13 (KJV) ¹³ Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee. The second time he said to the king Genesis 20:1-2 (KJV)

¹ And Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

² And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. Because of cowardice and fear, Abraham used deception as an offensive tool. You must be careful not to use a negative for a positive. Our enemy the devil uses any mistake we make to garner an entryway into our spirit to bring you into bondage. Once the enemy gets in it is difficult to remove him or his demons.

We find a case of two on one when Rebekah and Jacob team up to steal the birthright from Esau. This example of the use of deception illustrates in Genesis 27:6 – 23 how pretending and camouflage worked to deceive an old man. You can deceive by your actions as well as your words. Be wise when you get into a situation that is foreign to you do not be afraid to seek wise counsel.

Lying by Joseph's brothers to their father about Joseph killed illustrate how lying is used as a deceptive tool. The story of Joseph's brothers as describe in Genesis 34:13 – 31 shows how a group sometimes work to do evil. I know the scripture says in one place behold how good and pleasant for brethren (sisters) to dwell together in unity. I believe when you join a group whether family or friends that you get to know the intent of the group's intentions.

As you can see, much deception occurred in the book of Genesis, the book of first things. I believe God set it up that way to give us warning to the damage done by deceivers and deception.

Sex used to coerce Samson to tell his secret by deceiving him with false love. We live in a day so similar to the story of Samson finds men and women using sex to deceive each other. Samson's story stands out in the Bible because Samson called a judge by God deceived by physical beauty. The story in Judges 16:4 – 20 illustrates how Delilah used her body to seduce Samson. Today you must be extremely careful of the relations you involve yourself to ensure no seduction.

I suspect the most painful use of deception occurred when Absalom set his brother up to be slaughter for raping his sister Tamar. Amnon lied to his father David when he asked David to allow Tamara to prepare a meal for him because he was sick. Amnon laid a dirty trap for his sister. In the end analysis at the right time, Absalom invited all the King David's sons to a feast with the intent to avenge his sister Tamara. The story unfolds very clearly in II Samuel 13. In the story, David was deceived as well as Tamara and yet when Absalom knew what had happened he never said it out-loud but hid it in his heart how to destroy Amnon. Sometime it is better to just carryout your plan without disclosure.

With so many false pastors, prophets and teachers it is necessary to examine this next story of the false prophet who lied. A certain man in scripture was told by God to not do something then he spoke to a man of God as described in 1 Kings 13:18 (KJV) ¹⁸ He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him. The man of God lied and because the certain man trusted the words of the prophet, he lost his life because of disobedience. You must always obey the voice of God over any man or woman's voice. That being broken down to mean when God speaks to you through the Word of God the Bible or if you hear him audibly speak to your spirit you must heed it or face judgement. The only way you can heed the Word of God is by knowing the Bible.

The most devastating deception is self-deception as described by Doeg in Psalms 52:2 (KJV) ² Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. Do not allow your own tongue to deceive others by saying you is single but you are married. Stop lying to yourself because when you lie to yourself you also lie to others. Self-deception causes some to be delusional and disoriented. One of the worst things is for a leader/pastor to be self-deceived thinking they are God's gift to men when they in actuality are tolerated and despised.

Deception finds its way to the New Testament in Matthew 2:8 (KJV) ⁸ And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also. Herod's intent in his heart was to kill the child Jesus. This reminds us of any person who has a call on their life the Devil is determine to kill, steal and destroy them one way or another. The Holy Spirit guided those men a different way home to protect the young child. Today the Holy Spirit protects many children from the attempt of the Devil to destroy them. If you are one like me who God protected at birth from the plot of the enemy, you need to tell your story.

My father given the choice by the doctor to save my life as an unborn child or that of my mother chose to seek prayer from around the country of the saints of God for both of us. My mother lived after my birth fifty years and began using her gift thirty-five years after my birth. God blessed me to be here seventy-three years today to encourage the saints of God to be keen against the spirit of deception. It appears in many forms and likeness that is essentially a lie. Be careful.

The most striking example of deception and lying occurs in Acts 5:1 – 11 where Ananias and Sapphira conspire to tempt the Lord. I believe where there is a true man or woman of God when a person comes with a lie the Holy Spirit reveals to them the plot. This couple conspired an unnecessary lie that cost both of them their life. God knows all and sees all and to deceive the man or woman of God is extremely dangerous even in this day and time. Because the scripture lets us know that, you reap what you sow. If you sow a lie you reap more than you planned. God's multiplication is not like ours, because you reap more than you do sow. The scripture says in Galatians 6:7 (ASV) ⁷ Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

Do not be deceived ask questions until you come to the truth!

GRACE IS NOT A LICENSE TO SIN OR “THE MORNING AFTER PILL” FOR SIN

by: Shannon Ray Davis

Jesus Christ did not die on the Cross to save us only to have us continue in sin thinking having prayed the sinner's prayer now gives us Diplomatic Immunity from prosecution for future sins and we can continue sinning.

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
Galatians 6:7

Grace is not to be used as a “the Morning After Pill” for sin as some people view it.

We cannot say to ourselves “It is okay for me to fornicate tonight. I will ask Jesus to forgive me tomorrow!”

If you die in that sin tonight HELL is sure! There is no time to repent when you and I are dead and NO ONE IS GUARANTEED TO-MORROW.

Grace is not “Jesus died for all future sins I will commit so I can continue in sin as Jesus has already forgiven me for the sins in advance”...

FRIEND THIS IS DECEPTION AND NOT WHAT THE WORD OF GOD SAYS.

WE MUST STOP SINNING!

Grace is the mercy of God to allow us a space of time to confess, renounce and repent of our sins and receive forgiveness before we die. To call on YEHOVAH in the name of His Son JESUS CHRIST and be saved.

Reader If we die in our sins then judgement is certain and the time to repent and be forgiven is over with.

We are called to bring fruits meet for repentance and hate sin and turn from our evil ways. (Matt 3:8)

It is time to walk Holy before YEHOVAH, turn from our sins and sin no more. (1 Peter 1:16 and Isaiah 1:16)

God is LOVE and because He loves you and I He sent his ONLY BEGOTTEN Son JESUS CHRIST to take the punishment for our sins so we can receive a pardon. But this does not mean you and I are saved without taking action.

We must confess with our mouths that Jesus Christ is Lord, believe in our hearts that Yehovah has raised Jesus from the dead, and confess and renounce and repent of our sins to be saved, AND FOLLOW JESUS!

While Grace is a Gift of God and not of works lest any man should boast this does not mean you can continue as a sodomite or in fornication or other sin and make it into heaven. We must repent (turn away from the sin) if we want to make it into heaven and time is running out for each one of us to do this.

Hebrews 10:26-31

26 For if we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. 28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: 29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden underfoot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
